If Christ Has Not Been Raised ...

by Doug Kashorek

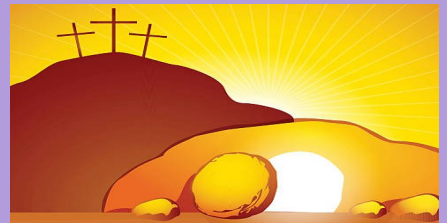

In medieval times, people generally held a biblical worldview—that is, they believed in a sovereign, omnipotent God who had all authority and directed their lives. In the centuries that have followed, the secular world has risen in power and prominence until in recent decades the default of the world is not to believe in God, His Word, nor miracles ... which would include the resurrection.

‘Eostre’ already having the name of the Anglo-Saxon goddess of spring and fertility attached to the one feast day per year that the Roman Catholic Church of long-ago set aside to celebrate Jesus’ resurrection, it was not a hard jump for the majority with a secular worldview to hijack the day and remove any biblical references altogether. Just a quick look in stores or at commercials today shows the day is now all about bunnies, chicks, flowers, eggs, and of course ... chocolate!

What hope does that offer? Such materialism offers pleasure in the immediate present but gives nothing to mankind for eternity. Resurrection from death, on the other hand, well

1 Corinthians 15, that incredible chapter on the resurrection, poses a series of if premises that include the title of this morning’s lesson, “If Christ Has Not Been Raised.” The ramifications for mankind, if the bleak picture of a resurrection-less life was true, are staggering, concluding with this thought: “If in Christ we have hope in this life only, we are of all people most to be pitied.”

So, as much as I love Cadbury ... I’d rather have Christ! I’ll still indulge in some jelly beans (the black ones especially) ... but my focus will be on Jesus! There will be some empty Reese’s wrappers around me for sure ... but I will proclaim that God’s Son has indeed been raised!

All are invited!

Ohio Valley Christian Youth Camp is again asking for monetary donations for food for the camps this year. They have a limited storage area for food and this allows them to purchase it as needed. Checks should be made out to OVCYC (food donation in memo) and can be sent to Becky Davis at 1870 Ross Road, Little Hocking, OH 45742, or you can give your donation to one of the Elders or Dan Mincks and we will see that it gets sent to them. There is also a tab on the website (ovcyc.com) where you can make donations.

Would you like to send a card?—You may place them in the basket by the Deacon's desk and we will mail them out.
