What Are Our Goals?

by Doug Kashorek

Last year at this time we were on the eve of celebrating the church's Centennial in a month full of activities, speakers, and presentations that took much planning to pull together at just the right time. We even researched and wrote a book that chronicled our 100-year journey. None of that was possible without setting, revising, and working toward goals along thirty months of meetings, discussions, and many utilizing their skills as a unified body of Christ to accomplish them all.

If you were a part of that, first—thank you! We couldn't have done that without you. If I wake up with an ache in my body, I'll physically struggle and am mindful of it throughout the rest of my day as other parts overcompensate for a member that I must nurse. Secondly, you know how much was involved to pull off such a huge undertaking ... but also how close you grew to others who were laboring on another section of this project.

Many of us set goals in our personal lives; sometimes we can't meet them. I often hear someone say when life has taken them by surprise, "I didn't get anything done that I planned to do today!" But anyone who is successful first plans to work and then works the plan.

So, why don't we do this spiritually? Different than resolutions where we make promises to pray or read our Bibles more to grow stronger in our relationship with God, goals are specific, measurable, and achievable. We may determine a certain time or section of scripture to do each day. We may visit or encourage certain people. But ... too often we just plod through our day never knowing what to do next and shrug in the late evening as we turn off the TV that God didn't use us to help grow His kingdom once again.

As a church, we must have goals. A VBS next summer? When will we see The Road to Damascus? Who have you invited to Friends & Family Day and Singing With the Spirit? What are the church's goals?

SERVICE STATION

There are a few items that the pantry really needs right now

feminine hygiene products—wipes—
scalped potatoes

1. Informational packets with dates and registration forms are now available for the 2 local church camps. These are on the table in the auditorium. There are “camperships” available to help pay on the cost. Please see Doug for camperships.
2. Ohio Valley Christian Youth Camp is again asking for monetary donations for food for the camps this year. They have a limited storage area for food and this allows them to purchase it as needed. Checks should be made out to OVCYC (food donation in memo) and can be sent to Becky Davis at 1870 Ross Road, Little Hocking, OH 45742, or you can give your donation to one of the Elders or Dan Mincks and we will see that it gets sent to them. There is also a tab on the website (ovcyc.com) where you can make donations.

KIDS ZONE!

School-age or younger children can pick-up a new activity packet in the back of the auditorium on the first Sunday of every month. Grandparents & parents can check it out, too!
