Obedience from the Heart

Heart Absence was the Fault of the Typical Jew

- A true Jew – Romans 2:28-29; John 1:47
- God wanted true fellowship – Exodus 19:4-6; 25:2, 8; Leviticus 26:11-13, 14, 17, 40-42
- God reminded them of what He wanted – Deuteronomy 6:4-5; 10:12-13, 16

	Rom. 6:17

Obedience from the Heart

Heart Response is Standard for Those in Christ

- Hearts turned to God, His word written on the heart – Luke 1:16-17; Jeremiah 31:31-34
- Example of Lydia – Acts 16:14

	Rom. 6:17

The Context and Language

A Transition from One Master to Another

- Slaves of sin – Romans 6:16-17a, 20-21; 7:25
- Delivered to another – Romans 6:17-18

The Context and Language

The Slavish Relationship is with the Person of Christ

- “that form of doctrine to which you were delivered” is ultimately Jesus Christ Himself, in His example, and all the authority He wields.
- Following context – Romans 7:4-6
- Preceding context – Romans 5:18-19; 6:3-4 (cf. Hebrews 5:8-9; 12:1-2)

The Context and Language

The Slavish Relationship is with the Person of Christ

- Language – “to which” – masculine – most often, “to whom”
- “form of doctrine” – typon didachēs – “pattern of teaching” – often in reference to a person.
 - Cf. Phil. 3:17; 1 Thess. 1:7; 2 Thess. 3:9; 1 Tim. 4:12
 - As Paul stated elsewhere – Gal. 2:20

Jesus Christ

That Form of Doctrine to Whom You Were Delivered

A Pattern of Obedient Faith (Philippians 2:5-13; Romans 12:1-2)

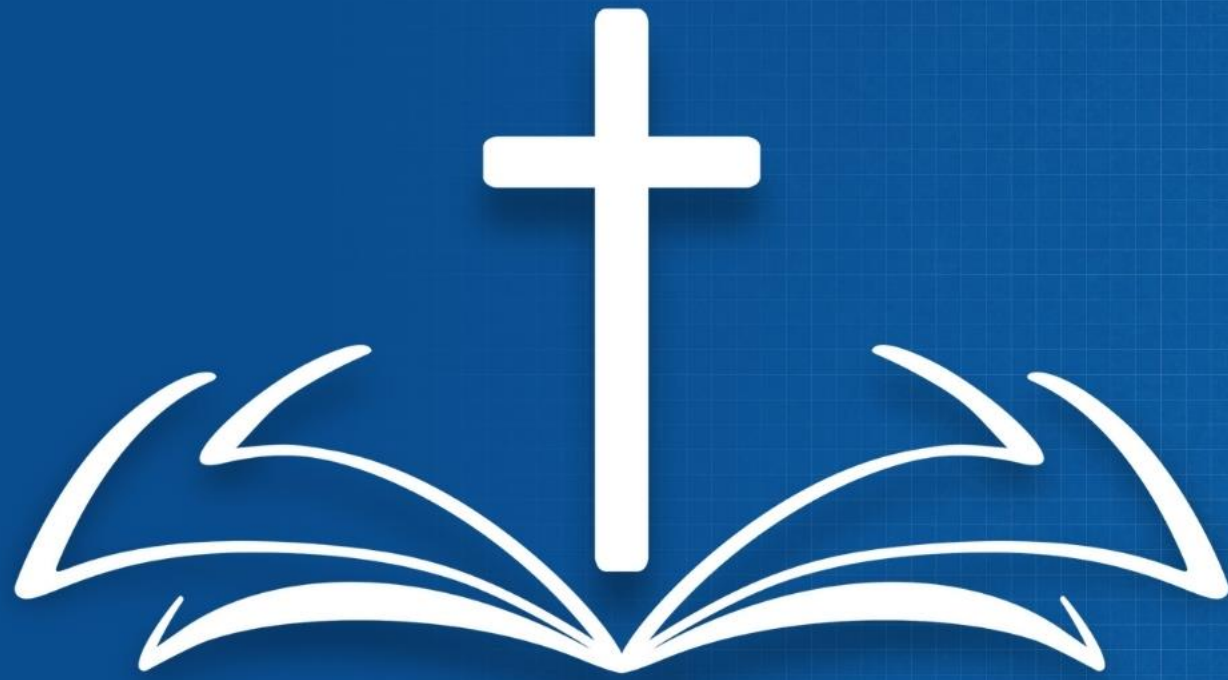

A Pattern of Holiness (John 17:14-19; 1 John 1:1, 5; 2:3-6, 29; Hebrews 4:14-16; 7:26-28; Romans 7:4, 6)

A Pattern by His Word (John 1:1; Galatians 2:20; Colossians 1:27; 2:6-7; 3:16; Hebrews 1:1-2; 2:1-4; Matthew 7:21-29)
