The Journey to Peace

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.” (Matthew 5:9, KJV).

The greatest conflict found in the Bible is the overarching matter of the human-God relationship.

I. Peace is birthed from conflict (Matt. 5:23; 18:15).

II. Peacemaking focuses on the relationship (Matthew 18:15).

III. Peacemaking is intentionally strategic. (Matthew 18:16-17).

The journey to peace requires purposed accountability (Galatians 6:1-2) with the intent of reconciling souls to God and each other (James 5:19-20).
