REMEMBER...

John 15:12-14

1. Memorials are an important part of our lives.
2. They remind us of people and events that had an impact on history and on our lives.
3. Many towns erect monuments honoring their men and women who served in WW1, WW2, Korea, Vietnam, Middle East, etc.
4. These all serve to keep us from forgetting the sacrifices of the past that have made our present possible.
5. We should be grateful to all who have served to allow us to become and remain free.
6. Above all, we should be grateful to God for his Son and the true freedom that can come through Him. John 8:32; 1 Tim. 2:1, 2
7. He left us a memorial in His honor.

Matt. 26:26-29
