TO FORGET IS HUMAN; TO REMEMBER DIVINE.

Judges 6-8

1. Tough fight...outnumbered 4 to 1 then 14 to 1 then 450 to 1.
2. Setting of story told about a kingdom long ago and far away.
3. Innumerable enemy coming their way.
4. Strong feelings of sympathy and support for the underdog.
5. Fascinating story even now, from the Bible.
6. Israel had forgotten God in this story. God watched them go.
7. Learning is so hard on children and parents
8. It hurts to be forgotten by own children.
9. Feels good when my children tell me they love me.
10. I wonder if it's not God withholding his blessings, but us walking away from him and stumbling to our knees.
11. Israel looked up when on their knees. God sent a wake up call to Israel. Then they remembered God.
12. Who are the armies in the story? Doesn't really matter. What mattered was who remembered God and fought on his side.
13. Heb. 11:32-34
14. It is when we remember who we are and who God is that we can be strong like Gideon and put to flight armies of aliens and obtain precious promises.

To forget is to be alone.
