

Psalm 42:1,2

Longing for God
Psalms 42 & 43

Breaking Down These Psalms:

The Psalmist finds himself dejected.

- Lack of ability to be in the house of God. (42:4)
- Thought that God had forgotten him. (42:3,9,10; 43:2)
- The presence of adversaries. (42:10; 43:1)

Longing for God
Psalms 42 & 43

Breaking Down These Psalms:

The Psalmist finds himself dejected.

The Psalmist longs to be present before the Lord.

The Psalmist seeks to comfort himself through hope in and praise of God.

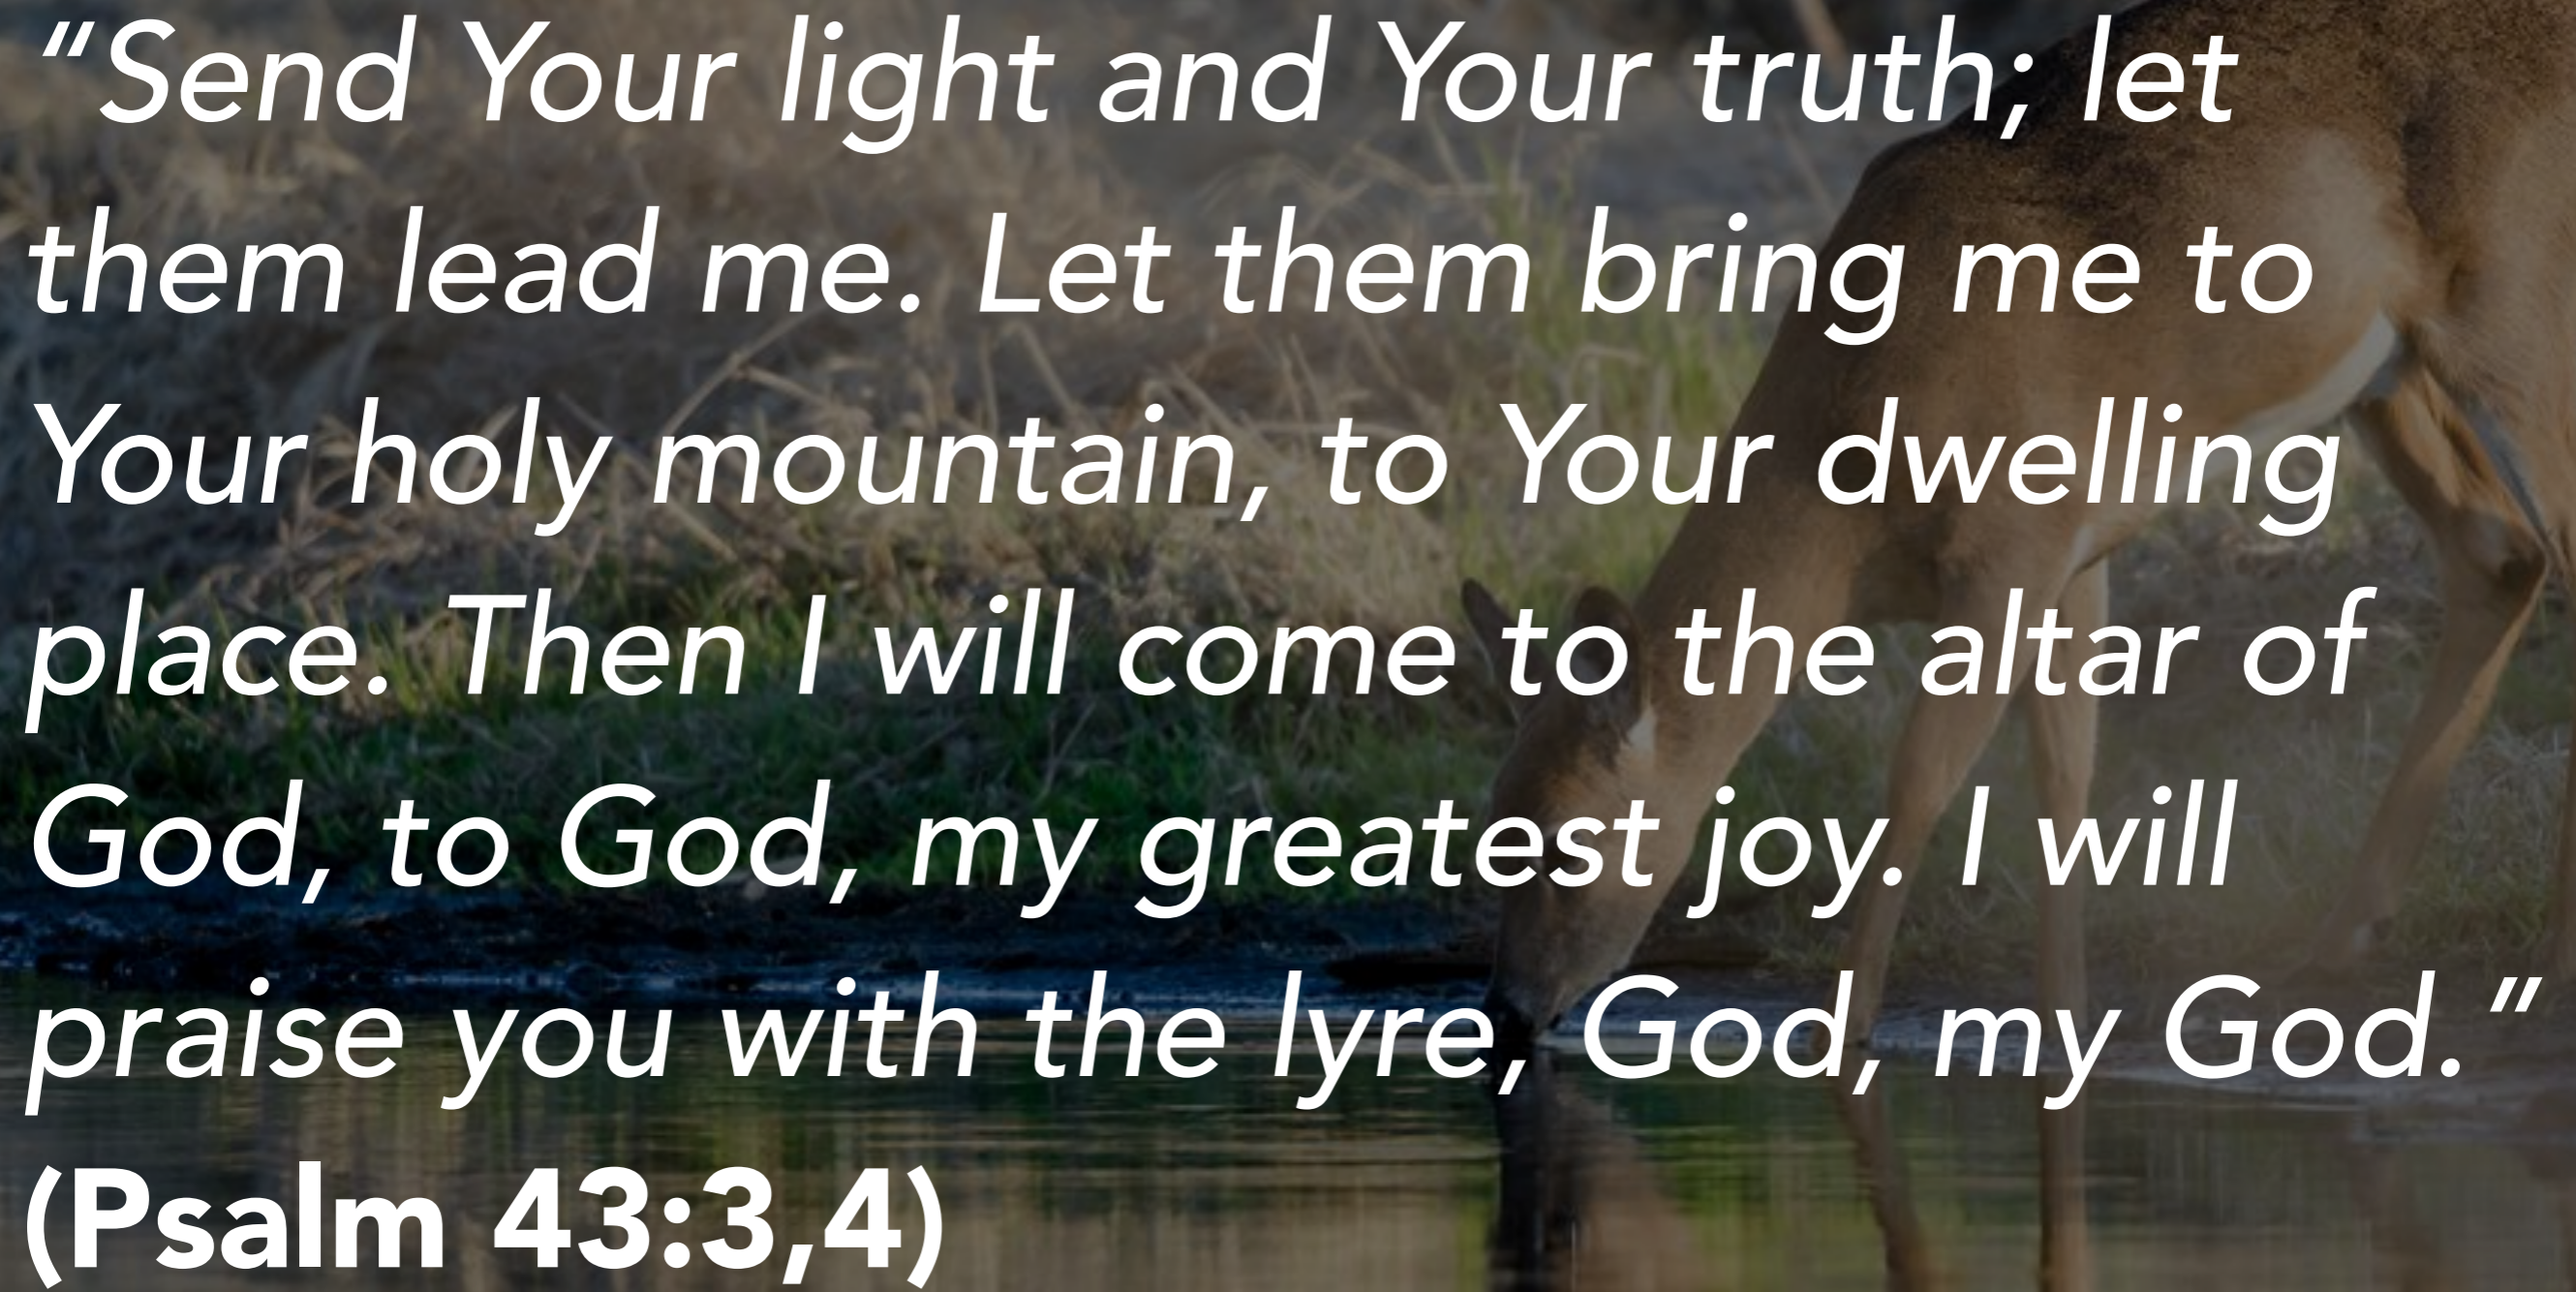

Seeing Ourselves In These Psalms:

We currently find ourselves dejected.

We currently find ourselves longing for God.

We can find comfort in this time of distress by hoping in and praising God.

Longing for God
Psalms 42 & 43

“Send Your light and Your truth; let them lead me. Let them bring me to Your holy mountain, to Your dwelling place. Then I will come to the altar of God, to God, my greatest joy. I will praise you with the lyre, God, my God.”
(Psalm 43:3,4)
