

THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT

News You Can Use

I don't know about you, but listening to the news can often be a pretty depressing thing. It can be depressing because either it is a message we do not want to hear, or it is full of useless information that is not relevant to us. A lot of news on the radio, television, and the internet is not very useful to me. However, the other day I heard a slogan for a news program. They said it was, "News You Can Use." This is exactly what the Gospel is for us today! In fact, the word "Gospel" means "good news."

What if I told you that I had news about how the Son of God came to this earth, suffered, and died so as to provide man a way to obtain salvation (Rom. 1:16)? Wouldn't this be "news you can use"? Something grand about this "news you can use" is that it is for everybody (Mk. 16:15-16). Where most news cycles live and die inside of a 36-hour period, this news has been relevant for over 2000 years. It is useful to us today! The question that remains is, are you listening? The news has been spread and you are reading it right now. What are you going to do with it? Will you neglect it or will you let it change your life and put the information to use (Heb. 5:9)?
