CHOICES

²³ By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they were not afraid of the king's edict. ²⁴ By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, ²⁵ choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. ²⁶ He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. ²⁷ By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible. ²⁸ By faith he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood, so that the Destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them.

²⁹ By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned.

(Hebrews 11:23–29)

The Faith choice...accepts godly suffering

“He chose to be mistreated with the people of God...
the reproach of Christ... but to endure” (Hebrews 11:25,26,27)

The Faith choice...remembers the goal

“he looked to the reward” (Hebrews 11:26)

“What things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. ⁸ Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ” (Phil. 3:7-8)

Before we choose...

→ Consider godly role models

→ Put things where they belong

→ Remember the time is short

→ Trust God to come through

Salvation is a Faith Choice

“By faith he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood, so that the Destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them.” (Heb. 11:28)
