

371 West Main Street
Greenwood, Indiana 46142
317.888.8288
churchofchristatgreenwood.org

January 29, 2023

Lord, Teach Us To Pray

Heath Rogers

Prayer was a very important part of Jesus' life. He often made time to be alone with God in prayer (Mark 1:35). Jesus prayed before eating (Matthew 14:19), before selecting His apostles (Luke 6:12-16), and before offering Himself as the sacrifice for our sins (Matthew 26:39-46).

The disciples were so impressed with the Lord's prayers they asked Him to teach them how to pray. "Now it came to pass, as He was praying in a certain place, when He ceased, that one of His disciples said to Him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples'" (Luke 11:1). There is no better person to whom we can go to learn how to pray.

Jesus responded to their request with what is often called "The Lord's Prayer" (Luke 11:1-4). Unfortunately, the words of this model prayer have been turned into a memorized chant that many people misuse. Jesus intended these words to be a simple model to teach His disciples the proper content of prayer.

1. Addressed to God the Father. "Our Father in heaven..." Prayer is man talking to God. It is a great blessing for sinful man to have an audience with his Holy Creator. God welcomes our prayers.

Notice that Jesus said to address God as "our Father." God should not be a stranger. We should feel close enough to Him to approach His throne at any time with a confident belief that He cares about us and wants to hear from us.

2. Filled with praise. "Hallowed be Your name." The word hallowed means greatly revered and honored. Before we present our requests to God, we should

