

At this point in our journey, we are going to assume there is a god. However we be reviewing which one we should get our attention. Please review and complete the following in preparation for class.

1. Why are predictive prophecies important?
2. If you were a god sharing prophecies with your creation, what are some things you might do to make it clear the prophecies were from you?
3. What types of conclusions might you be able to draw from predictive prophecies?
4. What are some objections one might have with the idea of prophecies?
