

Ancient Wisdom for a Digital Age

CHURCHOFCHRISTUCSON.ORG

Ancient Wisdom for a Digital Age

▶ Starting Points

- ▶ Principles to apply to tech in general, social media, internet usage, etc.
- ▶ These things are morally neutral
- ▶ Our use of these things reflect what is already there (Matthew 12:36).

Ancient Wisdom for a Digital Age

▶ Blessings:

▶ Greater opportunities to encourage.

Hebrews 10:24 cf. Colossians 4:6

▶ Opportunities to shine Christ light.

Matthew 5:14-16; Galatians 2:20

▶ Opportunities to grow as a Christian. 2 Peter 3:18

Ancient Wisdom for a Digital Age

- ▶ Three Pressing Dangers:

- ▶ The danger of distraction.

- Ephesians 5:15; 1 Corinthians 6:12

- ▶ The risk of being fooled.

Ancient Wisdom for a Digital Age

- ▶ Three Pressing Dangers:

- ▶ The danger of distraction.

- Ephesians 5:15; 1 Corinthians 6:12

- ▶ The risk of being fooled.

- Proverbs 12:22; 2 Timothy 2:15

- ▶ The judgement of idle words.

- Matthew 12:34-37

Ancient Wisdom for a Digital Age

▶ Healthy Digital Boundaries:

1. Have a clearly defined mission or goal.
2. Have a digital day of rest.
(Matthew 14:22-23)
3. Limit reach.