

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

Why?

What?

How?

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

“See to it that no one comes short of the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springing up causes trouble, and by it many be defiled...”

-Hebrews 12:15

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

Forgiveness is never a receipt given for a debt paid in full.

2. What is Forgiveness?

E. Forgiveness is granted when there is repentance.

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

“Be on your guard! If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. And if he sins against you seven times a day, and returns to you seven times, saying, ‘I repent,’ forgive him.”

- Luke 17:3-4

If someone does not repent, can I then be bitter? No!

“Never take your own revenge, beloved, but leave room for the wrath of God.”

– Romans 12:19

“Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm; the Lord will repay him according to his deeds.” – 2 Timothy 4:14

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

“Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.” - Matthew 5:44

“Bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you...” - Luke 6:28

3. How do we Forgive?

The key to learning how to forgive is to understand how God has forgiven us.

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

“And they shall not teach again, each man his neighbor, and each man his brother saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ for they shall all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest,” declares the Lord. “For I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.” – Jer. 31:34

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

“I, even I, am the One who wipes out your transgressions for My own sake; and I will not remember your sins.”

- Isaiah 43:25

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

ZAKAR = to remember, to think of, to make mention of.

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

“Forgiveness amounts to a promise never to bring up the issue of blame again - not to the offender, not to another, not even to oneself in brooding over the loss.”

“Though the hornet of memory may fly again, forgiveness has drawn its sting.”
– David Augsburger

Our Desperate Need For Forgiveness

“For if you forgive men for their transgressions, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men, then your Father will not forgive your transgressions.”

- Matthew 6:14-15
