

A sword with a cross-shaped hilt and a crown with three points and intricate detailing are positioned on the left side of the image. The sword is upright, and the crown is placed in front of its base. The background is dark and textured.

The Reign of the Messiah

*“The Lord said to my Lord,
‘Sit at My right hand, till I make
Your enemies Your footstool.’”*

Psalm 110:1

A sword and a crown are positioned on the left side of the slide. The sword is upright, and the crown is placed in front of its base. Both are rendered in a golden, slightly blurred style against a dark background.

I. He Sits and Rules

A. Jesus' Usage

- Who is the Messiah?
(Mt. 22:41-46; Mk. 12:35-37;
Lk. 20:41-44)
- Interesting Context
(Mt. 22:23-33; 23;
Mk. 12:18-27, 38-40;
Lk. 20:27-40, 45-47)

A sword with a cross-shaped hilt and a crown with three points and intricate patterns are positioned on the left side of the slide. The sword is upright, and the crown is lying on its side. Both are set against a dark, textured background.

I. He Sits and Rules

A. Jesus' Usage

B. Fulfillment

- Jesus Ascended!
(Ac. 2:25-35)
- Who is the enemy?
(Ac. 2:36)

A sword and a crown are positioned on the left side of the slide. The sword is upright, and the crown is placed in front of its base. Both are rendered in a golden, metallic texture against a dark blue background.

I. He Sits and Rules

A. Jesus' Usage

B. Fulfillment

C. Present Situation

- Our Authority
(Heb. 1:13, 2:2-3)
- Our Head (Eph. 1:22-23)
- Our Mindset (Col. 3:1-3)

A sword with a cross-shaped hilt and a crown with ornate details are positioned on the left side of the slide. The sword is upright, and the crown is placed in front of its base. The background is dark blue.

II. His People Volunteer

A. A Unique King!

- Over a Unique Kingdom
(Jn. 18:36)

A sword and a crown are visible on the left side of the slide. The sword is positioned vertically, and the crown is positioned below it, both appearing to be made of metal with intricate designs.

II. His People Volunteer

A. A Unique King!

B. Recognizing His Authority

- King of Everyone (Mt. 28:18)
- Disciples Recognize This (Mt. 28:19-20)
- “In Heaven and on Earth” (I Pe. 3:21-22; Ep. 1:20-21; Col. 1:16-17; 2:15)

A sword with a cross-shaped hilt and a crown with a cross on top are visible in the background on the left side of the slide.

II. His People Volunteer

A. A Unique King!

B. Recognizing His Authority

C. “Freewill Offering”

- Tabernacle Furnishings
(Ex. 35:29; 36:3)
- Animal Sacrifices (Lv. 22:18)
- Poetic Description of Worship
(Ps. 119:108; cf. Heb. 13:15)
- What Volunteering Really Means
(Rm. 12:1-2; Rev. 2:10; Mt. 16:24)

A golden crown with intricate designs and a sword with a cross-shaped hilt are positioned on the left side of the slide. The crown is at the bottom, and the sword is above it, pointing upwards. The background is dark blue.

II. His People Volunteer

A. A Unique King!

B. Recognizing His Authority

C. “Freewill Offering”

D. Fulfillment (Ac. 2:37-41)

A sword with a cross-shaped hilt and a crown with three points and intricate patterns are positioned on the left side of the slide. The sword is upright, and the crown is lying on its side. The background is a dark, solid color.

III. Priest Forever

A. Who is Melchizedek?

- Gn. 14:18-20

A sword and a crown are positioned on the left side of the slide. The sword is upright, and the crown is placed at its base. Both are rendered in a light, glowing color against the dark blue background.

III. Priest Forever

A. Who is Melchizedek?

B. A Picture of Christ!

- Greater than Levi (He. 7:4-10)
- Priest and King (He. 7:1, 14)
- Forever (Heb. 7:15-28)

A sword with a cross-shaped hilt and a crown with three points and intricate patterns are positioned on the left side of the slide. The sword is upright, and the crown is tilted. The background is dark blue.

III. Right Hand Judgement

A. When?

- Already! (Mk. 16:19; Heb. 1:3; Rm. 8:34)
- ...and Not Yet!
(I Cor. 15:24-26)

A sword with a cross-guard and a crown with three points are visible in the background on the left side of the slide. The sword is positioned vertically, and the crown is partially visible at the bottom left.

III. Right Hand Judgement

A. When?

B. King of Peace, King of War

- Rod of Iron

(Ps. 2:7-9; Rev. 12:5)

- Eternal Kingdom (Dan. 2:44)

- Active in Earthly Kingdoms

(Dan. 2:20-21, 37-38; 4:3, 17, 25-27, 32, 34; Rm. 13:1)

A sword and a crown are visible in the background on the left side of the slide. The sword is positioned vertically, and the crown is partially visible below it.

III. Right Hand Judgement

A. When?

B. King of Peace, King of War

C. Different God in OT/NT?

- They Haven't Read Either!
 - Especially not Psalm 110
- Authority Foundational to the Gospel
 - Rm. 10:13-15; Isa. 52:7
- Also Foundational to Judgment
 - Mt. 7:21-23

A sword with a cross-shaped hilt and a crown with three points and intricate metalwork are positioned on the left side of the image. The sword is upright, and the crown is placed in front of its base. The background is dark and textured.

The Reign of the Messiah

*“The Lord said to my Lord,
‘Sit at My right hand, till I make
Your enemies Your footstool.’”*

Psalm 110:1