

OUR PLANET

- I do have a high regard for the glory of God's creation. God said it was "good" after He created it, so I try to emulate such a cheerful, respectful assessment of my surroundings.

AM I AN ENVIRONMENTALIST?

- I do have a high regard for the glory of God's creation. God said it was "good" after He created it, so I try to emulate such a cheerful, respectful assessment of my surroundings.
- I have "dominion" over a planet without necessarily dominating it (Genesis 2:15, 1:28, Ephesians 1:21, Revelation 5:13).

- I have "dominion" over a planet without necessarily dominating it (Genesis 2:15, 1:28, Ephesians 1:21, Revelation 5:13).
- We should honor the creation because it is not ours to destroy but God's (2 Peter 3:10-13). God created this planet to be used and admired, but not manipulated and wasted.

AM I AN ENVIRONMENTALIST?

A PLANET WITHOUT PEOPLE

- Even with our high regard for the planet, that does not make us radical environmentalists. We cannot become so enamored with the creation that we fail to acknowledge the Creator!

A PLANET WITHOUT PEOPLE

- Even with our high regard for the planet, that does not make us radical environmentalists. We cannot become so enamored with the creation that we fail to acknowledge the Creator!
- Many radical environmentalists do develop a sort of hatred for humanity and envision a utopia in which humanity's influence is either greatly reduced or eliminated altogether.

- It is not a biblical idea to believe that this planet is better off with no people. It does not share the same moral status as a human.
