

ONE ANOTHER

1 PETER 4:8-11 & ROMANS 12:4-16

APPLICATIONS

- How we treat each other is an essential element of what it means to be Christian.

APPLICATIONS

- How we treat each other is an essential element of what it means to be Christian.
- "Preference" might only change if behavior changes first. You have to learn how to be "one another."

APPLICATIONS

- How we treat each other is an essential element of what it means to be Christian.
- "Preference" might only change if behavior changes first. You have to learn how to be "one another."
- Interdependence requires a degree of vulnerability. Don't let that be a hurdle too tall.

GALATIANS 5:13-15

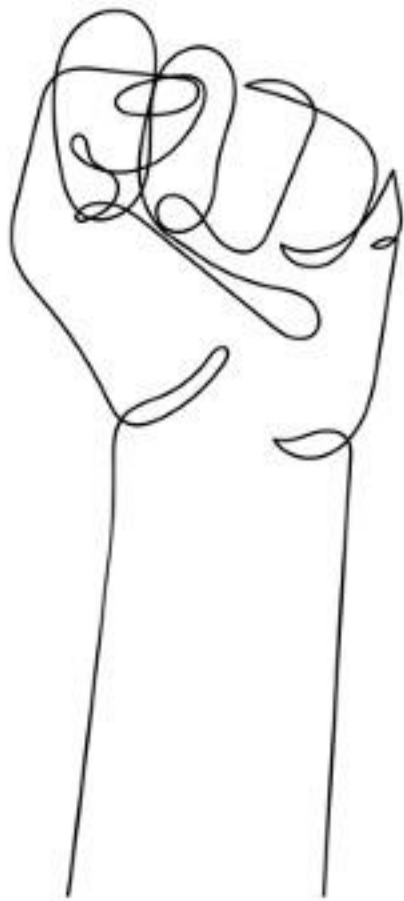

APPLICATIONS

- Be careful how you use your freedom. Nobody is forcing you to be nice. Verse 1 equates a life of selfish pursuits to a "yoke of slavery."

APPLICATIONS

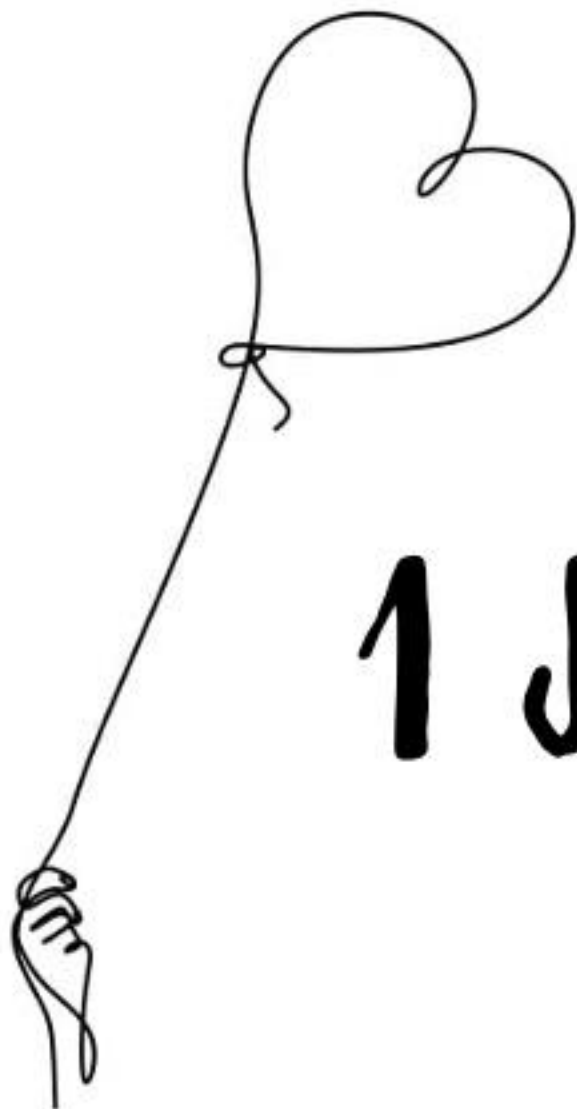

- Be careful how you use your freedom. Nobody is forcing you to be nice. Verse 1 equates a life of selfish pursuits to a "yoke of slavery."
- There isn't enough of us to go around. If we bite and devour too much, there won't be anything left.

APPLICATIONS

- Be careful how you use your freedom. Nobody is forcing you to be nice. Verse 1 equates a life of selfish pursuits to a "yoke of slavery."
- There isn't enough of us to go around. If we bite and devour too much, there won't be anything left.
- We should view "one another" as a non-renewable resource.

1 JOHN 4:7-11