

Why don't you just grow up?!

- Children always 'act their age' – it is adults who most often fail at this exhortation!

- Children always 'act their age' – it is adults who most often fail at this exhortation!
- Annoyance was a first response of Jesus' disciples, but notice the Master's response in Matthew 19:13-14 and Luke 18:15-17.

- Children always 'act their age' – it is adults who most often fail at this exhortation!
- Annoyance was a first response of Jesus' disciples, but notice the Master's response in Matthew 19:13-14 and Luke 18:15-17.
- The kingdom of God belongs to hearts of innocence.

In Evil Be Babes

- 1 Corinthians 14:20, 13:11
- Simple Faith and Trust – Implicit trust in a father (Isaiah 12:2, Proverbs 3:5-6).

In Evil Be Babes

- 1 Corinthians 14:20, 13:11
- Simple Faith and Trust – Implicit trust in a father (Isaiah 12:2, Proverbs 3:5-6).
- Sympathy – Children have a very strong sense of compassion (Romans 12:15, Eph. 4:32).

In Evil Be Babes

- 1 Corinthians 14:20, 13:11
- Simple Faith and Trust – Implicit trust in a father (Isaiah 12:2, Proverbs 3:5-6).
- Sympathy – Children have a very strong sense of compassion (Romans 12:15, Eph. 4:32).
- Innocence – There is a time in everyone's life when he or she is totally innocent of sin (Rom. 7:9). We strive to embrace that innocence (Matt. 18:3-4)

Yet In Thinking Be Mature

- 1 Corinthians 13:11
- Tattling– Many adults never learn to break this habit (Lev. 19:16, 1 Tim. 5:13).

Yet In Thinking Be Mature

- 1 Corinthians 13:11
- Tattling– Many adults never learn to break this habit (Lev. 19:16, 1 Tim. 5:13).
- Vainglory– Children long for attention, even to our annoyance (Gal. 5:26).

Yet In Thinking Be Mature

- 1 Corinthians 13:11
- Tattling– Many adults never learn to break this habit (Lev. 19:16, 1 Tim. 5:13).
- Vainglory– Children long for attention, even to our annoyance (Gal. 5:26).
- All Play and No Work– We can lament all day that children do not appreciate hard work or the value of a dollar, but the same trap is set for us!

