

CARRIED BY THE WIND

LOST CHILDREN

- “For this reason, we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it” (Hebrews 2:1).

LOST CHILDREN

- “For this reason, we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it” (Hebrews 2:1).
- Like children running after a wind-driven kite, we barely notice that we are drifting away from the path of God.

WIND-DRIVEN PEOPLE

- James 1:6 – If all you have is “doubt”, don’t be surprised by where you end up.

WIND-DRIVEN PEOPLE

- James 1:6 – If all you have is “doubt”, don’t be surprised by where you end up.
- Jude 12 – Big boasting that produces nothing big.

WIND-DRIVEN PEOPLE

- James 1:6 – If all you have is “doubt”, don’t be surprised by where you end up.
- Jude 12 – Big boasting that produces nothing big.
- Ephesians 4:14 – Either stand firm in the Lord, or be prepared to get thrown around.

IMPERCEPTIBLE BREEZE

- Commitment is key.

A person in a dark suit is running across a golden field, holding a white umbrella. The umbrella is being blown away by a strong wind, indicated by the person's posture and the cloud's shape. The background is a vast, bright sky with a large, billowing white cloud. The overall scene is metaphorical, representing the concept of 'facing the wind' or 'commitment' in the face of adversity.

FACE INTO THE WIND

- Commitment is key.
- Don't take the lazy way out (Luke 13:24).

A person in a dark suit is running across a field of tall grass, holding a large, light-colored umbrella. The person is running towards the right side of the frame, away from a large, dark, stormy cloud formation that dominates the upper half of the image. The sky is filled with heavy, white and grey clouds, suggesting a strong wind or rain. The overall scene conveys a sense of urgency and the need to face adversity head-on.
