

11 Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. From his presence earth and sky fled away, and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to what they had done. 13 And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them, and they were judged, each one of them, according to what they had done. 14 Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. 15 And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

My Deeds Remembered

- We cannot avoid the conclusion that our lives will be remembered, and judgment will be based upon our deeds (John 5:28-29, 2 Cor. 5:10).

My Deeds Remembered

- We cannot avoid the conclusion that our lives will be remembered, and judgment will be based upon our deeds (John 5:28-29, 2 Cor. 5:10).
- Our salvation, by grace, is linked with our response (Heb. 5:9, Matt. 7:13ff).

Sin and Grace

- Will my occasional sins be held against me, or are only “chronic” sinners condemned?

Sin and Grace

- Will my occasional sins be held against me, or are only “chronic” sinners condemned?
- When we try to rationalize certain activities, we should consider a few scriptures: Hebrews 2:1, 3:12-14, Galatians 2:11, 5:4, Colossians 1:19-23.

- Grace is deep, its limits unknowable. But does that warrant a casual approach to our conduct?

*Is judgment
even possible?*

Balance

- Like so many things in life, balance is the key to grasping such a difficult concept.
- Some facts pertaining to judgment:
 - I will not be judged by isolated deeds, but by my life in its context. What was the totality of it? What did I produce? (Matt. 12:33ff).
