1. What advice would you give to teens who have been raised in the church of Christ, but don't want to be baptized yet because they don't have any "serious" sins to repent of (things like sex and drugs). Some feel that since they don't have any experience, how can they repent.
2. Please explain: God divorced Israel – doesn't that mean He put them away? If so, how could they still be His chosen people?
