This I Have Learned About Life

- You cannot make someone love you; all you can do is try to be someone who is not difficult to love.
Sometimes it takes years to build trust, but only seconds to destroy it.
It is not what you have in life, but who you have in life that counts.
You can do something in a few minutes that will give you heartache for life.
You are responsible for what you do, no matter how you feel.
You are in control of your attitude; you choose your attitude!
Heros (the really great people of this world) are the ones who do what has to be done, regardless how they feel, and regardless of the circumstances.
Maturity has more to do with attitude, dependability, and taking responsibility for your life rather than the number of birthdays you have had.

- No matter how good a friend is, you are going to hurt each other every once and awhile, and forgiveness is essential to lasting friendships.
Forgiving others is sometimes easier than forgiving yourself.

'For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.'
Mark 10:45
