

The Messenger

Two Great Appointments

“And as it is appointed unto man once to die, but after this the judgement”

Hebrews 9:27

Two of the most sobering thoughts in all of the Bible are found in this passage; namely that we are going to die and stand in judgement to account for deeds done in this body whether good or evil (2 Cor. 5:10). One day this corruptible body is going to be raised in incorruption free from all impurity and decay. It will be raised in glory, splendid and majestic. One day this natural body will be placed in a grave but it will not remain there. It will be raised with power and all human weaknesses will be gone forever (1 Cor. 15:35-57). I care not how heavy the burdens of life become, I care not how long the day may be or how dreary the night becomes because I know that as a child of God I will one day gain the greatest victory imaginable.

One day someone will stand over our earthly bodies and speak words that hopefully will bring a measure of comfort to our families in their hour of grief. It is a foregone conclusion that when this happens, some reference will be made to the date of our birth and the date of our death. These dates will be inscribed on a marker at our gravesite. People will visit that site, read those dates and invariably comment about our age at death. But, you know, the dates are not really important.

What really matters is what manner of life we lived, how we conducted ourselves in all those years between the date of birth and date of death. You see, those years represent all the time we spent as living, breathing human beings. How we spent that time is vitally important. It doesn’t matter how big our earthly house was, how many or what kind of cars we owned. It doesn’t matter how much money we had in the bank or what our station in life was. What really matters is whether or not we spent that time seeking first the kingdom of God. What really matters is whether or not we spent it pursuing the things of God (Matt. 6:19-21, Col. 3:1-2, 1 John 2:15-17). What really matters is whether or not we spent our time walking in the truth (2 John 4). Walking in truth means living our lives in a manner approved by God, a life of obedience to Him (John 14:15, 1 John 2:4, Heb. 5:7-14, Heb. 6:4-9, 2 Thess. 1:7-12).

Today, let us trust in God’s directions for the right way to walk during all the years of our life on this side of eternity. If we will allow Him to do so, He will lead us safely through this life (Isaiah 41:10). If we will trust and obey Him, He will be with us all the way (Psalms 16:1, Isa. 41:10, Heb. 13:5).

To God the glory forever, Amen.
