Mark 10:45 "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

Weak and Broken

"In 1846, former president John Quincy Adams suffered a stroke. Although he returned to Congress the following year, his health was clearly failing. A friend of his came in and made particular inquiry of his health. Adams answered, 'I inhabit a weak, frail, decayed tenement; battered by winds and broken in upon by the storms, and from all I can learn, the landlord does not intend to repair'" (Today in the World, April 11, 1992).

The sad reality of life is the inevitability of death. All our bodies will break down, some sooner than others. Cultures throughout time have tried to slow down and even beat the aging process, but all have failed. Death is one battle we will all eventually lose unless the Lord comes first. John Adams had the right perspective on life. He realized that God is the owner -the landlord- of our bodies, and that He is in control of how long we live.

This is sad and discouraging, but there is good news! "Though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day" (2 Corinthians 4:16)

Just because we are breaking down, getting old, or even getting sick physically does not mean that we have to let it happen spiritually. Being a Christian comes with so much hope and reassurance!

It is important to keep ourselves physically healthy for as long as God allows us to live. However, there is nothing more important than remaining spiritually healthy and "renewing our inner man day by day" (2 Corinthians 4:16).
