Mark 10:45 "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

There They Crucified Him

When they came to the place called The Skull, there they crucified Him and the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left. And the people stood by looking on. (Luke 23:33-35)

Often, we sing about the old rugged cross on which Jesus suffered and died. One of my favorite songs begins with a powerful statement, "There was one who was willing to tread, All the sins of my life to forgive." We are truly blessed to have recorded in Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John a record of the matchless life of our Lord and Savior. His visit to this world was extremely brief, yet His wisdom and teachings surpass all the wisdom and teaching of any man who has ever lived. On one occasion He asked His disciples who they thought He was, Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." (Matt. 27:54) About Himself He says, "I came to seek and save the lost." (Luke 19:10)

O how we need to take a long, long look at the one who was willing to die for us. Peter tells us that He not only suffered for us but also left us an example that we should follow in His steps. (1 Pet. 2:21) Reminds me of the words of another of our songs that say, "Sweetly Lord have we heard thee calling, Come follow me." Following in His steps will lead us through the wilderness of temptation, the waters of baptism, fields of service, mountain of prayer, house of worship, garden of despair, realm of complete obedience and finally to the hour of victory.

As we take that long, long look at the man who died in our stead, our hearts should be filled with praise and thankfulness that He was willing to give His life, shed His blood to make it possible for us to be rescued from the domain of darkness. Truly, He bore it all that we might have life and have it more abundantly (Romans 5:8-10) He has proven His love for us, a love that is everlasting, a love that is deeper than all sorrow, sin or the grave. (Rom.8:35-39; 1 Cor. 15:50-57) The love of the Lord for you and I is a boundless love, one that can be ours if we love Him, obey Him and keep His commandments. (Heb. 5:8-9; John 15 9-11) My prayer today is that all of us can proclaim, "A wonderful Savior is Jesus my Lord, a wonderful Savior to me!" To God be the glory.
