We stand ready to assist you with any need you may have.

You may call the church office at 270.777.1828.

We would be honored to help if we can. May God bless you with a wonderful week.

Mark 10:45 "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many."

On the first day of the week, Sunday, we come together to worship, to sing praises to God, to learn more about His will, and to remember the sacrifice that was made for us so that we may have salvation. As New Testament Christians, we celebrate the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ every first day of the week, when we take the Lord's Supper (Luke 22:14-20; 1 Corinthians 11:20-26 & 10:16-17; Acts 20:7). While this is commanded in the scriptures, it is really something we do out of love and respect because we want to please God. We have been especially blessed in the gift of His Dear Son. Today I would like to share with you one of my favorite poems that many of you probably have already read, but it is so beautiful that it bears repeating. I believe this poem to be very fitting for today's lesson. ~PJH

One Solitary Life

He was born in an obscure village
 The child of a peasant woman
 He grew up in another obscure village
 Where he worked in a carpenter shop
 Until he was thirty when public opinion turned against him
 He never wrote a book
 He never held an office
 He never went to college
 He never visited a big city
 He never traveled more than two hundred miles
 From the place where he was born
 He did none of the things
 Usually associated with greatness
 He had no credentials but himself
 He was only thirty-three
 His friends ran away
 One of them denied him
 He was turned over to his enemies
 And went through the mockery of a trial
 He was nailed to a cross between two thieves
 While dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing
 The only property he had on earth
 When he was dead

He was laid in a borrowed grave
Through the pity of a friend
Twenty centuries have come and gone
And today Jesus is the central figure of the human race
And the leader of mankind's progress
All the armies that have ever marched

All the navies that have ever sailed
All the parliaments that have ever sat
All the kings that ever reigned put together
Have not affected the life of mankind on earth
As powerfully as that one solitary life
