The Father of a Multitude

Genesis 14-17

Preparing your heart...

Read prayerfully. Ask the Father to help you see and understand what He wants you to.

List some key people/places/events.

(You may need some extra paper ☺)

To think about as you read:

- What lessons do you think Abram and Sarai each learned during this time?
- What are some reasons why these two may have had (and why we sometimes have) trouble believing God's promises?
- In what ways does this section inform our understanding of covenants?
- What does Abram's rescue of Lot teach us about important themes like brotherly love, reliance on God's strength, and God's sovereign power over the forces of earth?
- How does the priest-king Melchizedek differ from the other kings of his day?
- If you were to confer on God a name (as Hagar did), what would it be?

Topics/questions to return to later:

Notes