my story

seeking to grow in how I
interact with God's word

How should Deborah's story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

When God's word calls me to do something that I might not feel ready for, what can I do?

Do I make judgments humbly and righteously and fairly?

Do I surround myself with people of faith who are committed to obeying the will of God?

How do I encourage others to do the will of God?
