

his story

1 Samuel 14; ch. 18-20; 23:15-18

Background Info: What do we know about him?
(strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, challenges, roles, etc.)

How did he interact with the words/will of God?

- as a warrior in battle and leader among the people
- in responding to his father, King Saul
- in his friendship with David

my story

seeking to grow in how I interact with God's word

How should Jonathan's story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

When my own self-interest or my personal feelings for someone make it hard to do what God says, how do I find strength and courage in Jonathan's story?

Who are my closest friends? What do you have in common with those friends? Do those friendships promote mutual, spiritual growth?

Do I allow numbers/odds to hinder my obedience?

His story

Can you think of something from the life or teaching of Christ that further illustrates or reinforces what you've learned in this study?

jonathan