

his story

Jonah chapters 1-4

Background Info: What do we know about him?
(strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, challenges, roles, etc.)

How did he interact with the words/will of God?

- when first instructed to go to Nineveh
- after being delivered from death
- after Nineveh repented

my story

seeking to grow in how I interact with God's word

How should Jonah's story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

When God calls me to confront sins in my heart, e.g.
anger, prejudice, bitterness, etc.? (cf. Matthew 5, James 2)

When God's word calls me to seek out people and places that I may not want to be with/at?

When I'm angry with God for something He's done...
or for something He hasn't done?
