

his story

Habakkuk chapters 1-3

Background Info: What do we know about him?
(strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, challenges, roles, etc.)

How did he interact with the words/will of God?

- when God was silent and allowed injustice to go on
- when God used an evil people as His instrument
- when God pronounced judgment on the wicked

my story

seeking to grow in how I interact with God's word

How should Habakkuk's story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

How do I cope with living in a world where evil and suffering abound and God doesn't intervene as I desire?

Do I struggle when God calls me to trust Him with my questions and doubts and desires for immediate justice?

How can I continue to live a life of joy and peace despite the brokenness and chaos all around me?
