

his story

Daniel chapters 1-6, 10
Ezekiel 14:12-20

Background Info: What do we know about him?
(strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, challenges, roles, etc.)

How did he interact with the words/will of God?

- as a young boy, recently taken to a strange land
- when others tried to use his devotion to destroy him
- as an aged prophet, needing encouragement

my story

seeking to grow in how I interact with God's word

How should Daniel's story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

Think of some of God's standards you have made up your mind not to compromise, no matter the peer pressure.

How does devotion to God prepare me for situations where I would otherwise be devoured spiritually?

Would others describe me as Daniel was...
"trustworthy... no negligence or corruption found"?
