Background Info: What do we know about him?
(strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, challenges, roles, etc.)

How did he interact with the words/will of God?

- as a priest and scribe living among God's people in Babylon
- in leading God's people back to Jerusalem
- in restoring the hearts/lives of the people

my story

seeking to grow in how I interact with God's word

How should Ezra's story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

How have you "set" or "prepared" your heart for the challenges and opportunities ahead of you?

In what ways can I help others to "leave Babylon" and "return to Jerusalem," figuratively speaking?

How does Ezra's example help us in using the Word to restore brothers and sisters who have fallen into sin?
