

his story

Matthew 8:5-13; Luke 7:1-10

Background Info: What do we know about him?
(strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, challenges, roles, etc.)

How did he interact with the words/will of God?

- among the Jews day-to-day
- when his servant became gravely ill
- when Jesus agreed to come heal the servant

my story

seeking to grow in how I interact with God's word

How should the centurion's story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

Do others see in me someone who has a daily relationship with the word?

Who do I know that desperately needs spiritual healing from the Lord Jesus? What am I willing to do to help?

Are there times in my life when I have trouble submitting to the authority of Christ?
