my story

seeking to grow in how I interact with God's word

How should their story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

What good qualities of each woman help me interact with the word... with God... as I should?

What struggles of Martha and Mary can inform and help me grow in my walk with God and the word?

What promises of God help me the most when I am feeling the pain/weight of grief and suffering?
