my story

seeking to grow in how I interact with God's word

How should Epaphras's story shape how I approach and respond to God's word?

What is Christ counting on me to do to encourage other believers in their faith and obedience to God's will?

When and why is it important to speak well of my local congregation to outsiders?

When it comes to the spiritual growth and faith of my fellow believers... What are my prayers for them like?
(how often, how fervently, what I pray about)
