What the Bible Says About the Gospel

by Larry R. Ping III

Let us call attention to what the Bible has to say about the gospel.

The Gospel's Core Is the Death, Burial and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Paul wrote, "For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures" (1 Cor. 15:1-6). The gospel is the "good news." What better news is there than we can receive salvation from our sins, and in the end defeat death and inherit an eternal home in heaven (1 Cor. 15)?

The Gospel Is Powerful. God breathed, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek" (Rom. 1:16). The word contained in the New Testament volume is powerful enough to rid one of his sins. There are no other words which can save a man. James penned, "Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls" (Jas. 1:21).

The Gospel Requires Those to Spread It. As powerful as the gospel is, it still needs those who are willing to preach it. "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things" (Rom. 10:14-15). There is a dire need for spreaders of the gospel today!

The Gospel Is to Be Preached to Everyone. Some of Jesus' final words were, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mk. 16:15). At one point, it had been preached to "every creature" (Col. 1:23). That may not be so now! Those who have heard and obeyed the gospel must in turn teach it to others (2
