

Evidence for the current Canon

Quoted by the church fathers

Clement quotes from: the four gospels, Romans, 1st and 2nd Corinthians, Ephesians, Hebrews, Titus, James, 1st Peter and Revelation

Eusebius lists the books he said had been traditionally accepted without question as inspired

Disputed books: James, Jude, II Peter, 2nd and 3rd John and Hebrews

Tests for inspired books

Does the book claim inspiration?

Clement did not claim to be inspired

Is it written by an Apostle or someone closely associated with an Apostle?

Is its content in keeping with Apostolic teaching?

Was it accepted by loyal Churches?

Does it have the ring of “genuineness”?

The Canon

By 175 - 20 of the NT books were considered inspired

By 250 all 27 were considered inspired

The following church councils only confirmed what the church had already accepted - they did not decide on the books to be included in the NT

325 – Council of Nicea – Did not even bring up any issues of the Canon. Discussion was on the nature of Christ.

We should not be surprised

1 Tim. 4 Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, 2 speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron, 3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

2 Thess. 2;

We should not be surprised

2 Peter 2 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction. 2 And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed.

Gal. 1:8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. 9 As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed.

Gnosticism

Gnosis – knowledge

Separation from the material world

Asceticism vs hedonism

Denied the divinity of Christ since nothing in the flesh could be good

Rejected as false teachings by the church

Form Criticism

Form vs Source Criticism

Formgeschichte

Schmidt, Dibelius, Bultman – 1920s

Treat the N.T. Scriptures just like an other form of literature

Assumes:

- No miracles
- No inspiration
- Oral tradition until Gospel writers edited the sayings into stories for the church
- Attempts to “peel back” the layers of oral tradition to get at the original

Form Criticism

Methods:

- 1) Classify the material by form. - any chronology or narrative is rejected
- 2) Recover the original form
- 3) Search for Sitz im Leben

Sitz im Leben

1 Tim. 2:11 Let a woman learn in silence with all submission. 12
And I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in silence.

1 Cor. 6:9 Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites, 10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God.

Sitz im Leben

What cultural criteria are you using to determine whether a passage can be dismissed?

If I can dismiss this passage then which passages should stay?

Acts 1:8 But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

Acts 2

Examples of Form Criticism

Mark 2:3 Then they came to Him, bringing a paralytic who was carried by four men. 4 And when they could not come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. So when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.”

6 And some of the scribes were sitting there and reasoning in their hearts, 7 “Why does this Man speak blasphemies like this? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

8 But immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they reasoned thus within themselves, He said to them, “Why do you reason about these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Arise, take up your bed and walk’? 10 But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins”—

He said to the paralytic,

11 “I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house.”

Examples of Form Criticism

Form Critic:

5-10 are not original because

- No where else does Jesus pronounce forgiveness of sins
- No other association of sin with forgiveness

Answer:

Luke 7:47 - 47 Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little.”

John 9:1 Now as Jesus passed by, He saw a man who was blind from birth. 2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

Jesus is using this miracle to directly challenge the authority of the scribes

Examples of Form Criticism

Mark 7:5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, “Why do Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?”

6 He answered and said to them, “Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written:

‘This people honors Me with their lips,

But their heart is far from Me.

7 And in vain they worship Me,

Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’[b]

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men[c] —the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do.”

9 He said to them, “All too well you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition. 10 For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’;[d] and, ‘He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.’[e] 11 But you say, ‘If a man says to his father or mother, “Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban”—’ (that is, a gift to God), 12 then you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother, 13 making the word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do.”

14 When He had called all the multitude to Himself, He said to them, “Hear Me, everyone, and understand: 15 There is nothing that enters a man from outside which can defile him; but the things which come out of him, those are the things that defile a man.
