

SELECTING DEACONS

ACTS 6:3

SELECTION PROCESS

- We look at Acts 6 as a pattern of a general process of selecting men for work in the church.
- It would seem Timothy and Titus took some of the role of the apostles (Tit. 1:5; 1 Tim. 5:21-22).
- One of the main considerations here is that the congregation did the selecting.
- Summing up:
 - Need and qualifications are laid out.
 - Congregation makes selections.
 - Apostles/evangelist ordain

QUALIFICATIONS

- Serious men
- Honest men
- Sober men
- Content men
- Sincerely convicted men
- Tested men
- Innocent men
- Good husbands and fathers
- Married to good wives