

A black and white image featuring a microphone with a mesh grille, centered within a series of concentric circles that create a ripple effect. The background is dark, and the microphone and circles are rendered in a lighter, semi-transparent style.

Public Prayers

Acts 1:14

What Are We Doing?

- We are speaking to God almighty (Lk. 18:11).
- We are speaking on behalf of a group of people (Acts 4:24).
- We are listening to someone speak to God (Matt. 6:9-13).
- We are teaching and learning in our prayers (Psalm 42).
- We are praying in a moment of time (Neh. 2:4).

What Are We Praying For?

- Guidance for making difficult decisions (Acts 1:24; Col. 1:9).
- The work of reaching the lost (Acts 4:29; Col. 4:3-4).
- The leaders among us (Acts 14:23; 6:4-6; 13:3).
- The civil leaders (1 Tim. 2:1-2).
- Those who are suffering (Acts 12:5; Heb. 13:3).
- God's comfort for the sorrowing (Acts 20:36-38; 21:5).

How Are We Responding?

- Responsive agreement was a part of Old Testament worship (Deut. 27:16; Neh. 8:5-6; Psa. 106:48; 72:19).
- It was part of New Testament worship (1 Cor. 14:16).
- It is part of heavenly worship (Rev. 5:14).
- It is a word that belongs to God's people (2 Cor. 1:20).