Faithful Fathers

Father's Day is designated to honor and express our appreciation for fathers obviously. It seems to take a back seat to Mother's Day, but that's ok, after all mother's do play that unique and special God given role of giving us life. Father's Day taking the "back seat" to Mother's Day is fine but "fathering" should never take a "back seat" to mothering. In fact by God's great wisdom and providence both are crucial and necessary. Unfortunately, for various reasons, all tied back to the fact that we live in a fallen world this isn't always the case.

For those of us striving to be fathers by God's definition the task may feel overwhelming or even impossible at times but the truth is we can become Godly fathers who are a blessing to our wives, children, and our community. It certainly isn't easy and we can't do it alone, but God would never exasperate us by having expectations that are impossible for us to achieve.

Father's can experience the blessing of becoming like our father in heaven. It's also important for fathers and those who depend on them to realize fathers are only human and can NEVER provide the spiritual blessings and gifts that ONLY our Heavenly Father can provide.. Continued on the next page
