

Contributions

We are working on a way to do that online (who would have ever thought), but in the meantime, those who give by check could simply mail it to the PHR address, 800 Perry Hill Road, Montgomery, Al. 36109 or directly to Treasurer, Bob Trefethen at 431 Arrowleaf Court, Montgomery, Al. 36117.

In the beginning, this emergency looked short term and we just thought that any and all could give it all after the emergency. Now that it looks much longer, it becomes important that we each continue to contribute weekly or monthly as we have, if we are able, because bills still have to be paid and evangelists need to continue to be supported. We will let you know when we have any better solution to the problem.

The Alabama Department of Public Health Hotline 1-888-293-8888 opened today, March 14. It allows anyone seeking information on how and where to be tested if you think you have symptoms. Do call the elders also if you think you might have a health problem.

Taylor Burch has COVID-19 in KY

3/25/2020 - Your prayers are requested for Taylor Burch in Bowling Green, KY, grandson of John & Betty Burch, who now appears to have COVID-19. He is a pilot with Jet Blue Airlines and operates out of JFK in New York, which is a huge center for the virus. His wife Katie and 3-year old son, Sawyer, and infant, Hawkins, have been exposed. Taylor is self quarantining in one bedroom at home until test results come back, but there is little doubt that he has the virus.

The Right Kind Of Fear Begets Courage

“And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell” (Matthew 10:28).

SOMETIMES OUR COURAGE FAILS US NOT BECAUSE WE LACK BOLDNESS BUT BECAUSE WE LACK THE RIGHT KIND OF FEAR. We mistakenly think the key to greater courage would be greater self-confidence, and so we fire up our “Can Do!” attitude. After a while, our attitude gets dangerously close to pride. In our mad scramble for greater strength, we forget the meaning of reverence. We no longer tremble before our Creator. We lose our fear of God. And at that point, lesser fears begin to dominate our lives.

Contrary to what many people think, fear is not always a bad thing. If we could find a way to banish every form of fear from our hearts, we would find ourselves weaker, not stronger. The thing that’s wrong with us most of the time is not that we’re afraid, but that we have too little fear for the things we should be afraid of. Fear is not the problem; it’s what we choose to fear.

To be specific, there is too much fear in our relationship with other people because there is too little fear in our relationship with God. “Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul,” Jesus commanded, “But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.” This is not a command that many of us take seriously, and consequently, we spend our lives fearing what other people can do to us. A healthy measure of godly fear, however, would free us from this “humanly” fear.

Godly fear involves a remarkable irony. When we learn to relate to God with real reverence, we not only become more humble, but we also become more bold. As we grow in the recognition of our weakness versus God, we grow in the recognition of our strength versus the devil (2 Corinthians 12:9). Indeed, the devil can do very little to intimidate those who genuinely fear God. As strong as the devil may seem at times, he is a coward at heart. There are those whom he actually fears, and he is most afraid of those who’re not afraid of him. So we’re told, “Submit to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you” (James 4:7). Haven’t we wasted too much of life already in unnecessary fear? Now’s the time to learn where real strength comes from.

“Where the fear of the Lord guards the door, the enemy cannot enter” (Francis of Assisi).
