$8,725.00

We are working on a way to do that online (who would have ever thought), but in the meantime, those who give by check could simply mail it to Kerry Lashlee 9748 Bent Brook Dr Montgomery, AL 36117 In the beginning, this emergency looked short term and we just thought that any and all could give it all after the emergency. Now that it looks much longer, it becomes important that we each continue to contribute weekly or monthly as we have, if we are able, because bills still have to be paid and evangelists need to continue to be supported. We will let you know when we have any better solution to the problem.

The Alabama Department of Public Health Hotline 1-888-293-8888 opened today, March 14. It allows anyone seeking information on how and where to be tested if you think you have symptoms.

Do call the elders also if you think you might have a health problem.

4/17/2020 - Bob Trefethen had a consultation with Dr. Avery, Montgomery Cancer Center Prattville Office, today. He believes that he has "Small Lymphocytic Lymphoma". It is slow growing and treatable although not curable. This is the less serious of the two outcomes. A PET CT scan is scheduled next week to look for lymphoma in the lymph nodes. Bob is thankful that prayers have been answered. Please continue to keep him in your prayers.

4/14/2020 -Helen Stewart I talked with Laura today. She was able to see her mom before the transfer. She said Belen was more alert today than anytime she has seen her. She was able to watch the wonderful videos several of you made and was encouraged by them. The transfer went well and Laura said her mom was looking for her phone. Knew she had to be doing better because she wanted to keep up with things. Prayers are being answered! Please continue to pray for Helen and that they will be able to get her off the ventilator soon.

James Powell is still recovering at home

The First Church Together

The Spirit records for us how the first church that met in Jerusalem interacted with each other on a regular basis. Acts 2:42 we read that they devoted themselves to the apostles doctrine, the fellowship, the breaking of bread, and the prayers. If we want everyone to view the church as the gift God intended it to be, we need to be committed to these same areas of focus.

We must realize that no one but God can direct our lives in the way they out to go. And seeing how through time He has revealed Himself more fully to particular men, we must determine who those men are and adhere to their words. Men like Moses, Isaiah, and the apostles. When we unite in the understanding that we must listen to the words of the apostles and not the words of philosophers or politicians or even any particular preacher we can begin to really get somewhere.

Secondly, they were devoted to fellowship. This indicates that having the right teaching is not enough. The teaching points beyond itself and we must use the teaching properly. It was not meant to provide a path to spiritual nirvana and it was not meant to provide a list of rules to follow. God's truth through these chosen men gives us access to real fellowship with God and with other men.

Fellowship with God is maintained through prayer. Communication and relationship with the God of all the universe and the perfect Father is the treasure of all treasures. God's people are filled with the Spirit of God by whom they cry out, "Abba, Father," and cast their burdens on Him, and find grace in time of need (Rom 8:15, 1 Pet 5:7, Heb 4:16).

The breaking of bread is where we develop our bond with each other. We eat the Lord's Supper together and we share daily meals together. Participation in these meals, we celebrate the goodness of God, the ability to enjoy His goodness, and the blessing of having others to celebrate it with. We don't divide over differences; we keep fellowship with each other (and work through our differences) to help us maintain our fellowship with God and become useful in His hands.
