We are working on a way to do that online (who would have ever thought), but in the mean- time, those who give by check could simply mail it to Kerry Lashlee 9748

In the beginning, this emergency looked short term and we just thought that any and all could give it all after the emergency. Now that it looks much longer, it becomes important that we each continue to contribute weekly or monthly as we have, if we are able, because bills still have to be paid and evangelists need to continue to be supported. We will let you know when we have any better solution to the problem.

Be Nice

“I find it easy to portray a businessman. Being bland, rather cruel and incompetent comes naturally to me” (John Cleese). It is easy to be mean, and the world makes it easier. Life seems to be a gauntlet of rude awakenings, playground politics, the rage of rush hour, the push-and-shove along the corporate ladder, and the snippy bickering of a thousand petty conflicts can thoroughly trample any sunny disposition you may have once possessed as a child. It seems inevitable that we will be formed into a scowl. After receiving our fair share of mistreatment, we can end up approaching life with a preemptive, chronic frown. We brace ourselves for unkindness, and we are slowly transformed into a grouch.

Not so, for a Christian. A Christian must resist this darkening of the demeanor (Col. 3:12). A Christian doesn't indulge in the pettiness of the world. A Christian is known for kindness (Gal. 5:22). It's not an optional accessory. If you're a Christian, then that means you are kind. A Christian is loving. It's what defines him (1 John 3:10). The difference is obvious. Those who truly belong to God are loving, in particular, toward other Christians. This means unkindness can be a deal-breaker. Continued inside

9/12/2020 - Demetrius Griffin family prayer request Earlier today, I received a prayer request from one of my online students, Demetrius Griffin. Having received his permission to do so, I am sending the request to PHR so we might raise prayers for his wife, Tabitha. The entire family, Demetrius, Tabitha, and their three children (Dantaviis, Daniel and Talia) ... the youngest being but 3-years old ... contracted COVID almost two weeks ago. It has been a rough time for them all, but he and the children seem to be improving. Unfortunately, his wife, Tabitha, now has pneumonia in her lungs. Prayers are eagerly solicited on her behalf. Thank you, [Brenda Turner]

Marsha Williamson request for prayers 9/9/2020 - I also ask for prayers. My stomach issues have continued to trouble me since November 2019. I have had several tests to narrow down what is causing the pain. Tomorrow I have an appointment with my GI specialist/surgeon to review those tests and to determine what can be done to alleviate my problems. Thank you. [Marsha Williamson]

9/9/2020 - My sister Beth Beasley fell and fractured her right shoulder this morning. She is in a lot more pain. She will see an orthopedic surgeon tomorrow. Please continue to pray for relief from her pain due to the diagnosis of end stage COPD and CHF as well as this new injury. [Marsha Williamson]

Eric Aldridge family COVID-19

9/8/2020 - Received a call about an hour ago. One of my fellow workers from years ago asked for prayers for his son, son's wife and 3 children. (Mr. and Mrs. Eric Aldridge and family) All are sick with the virus. Eric is the more serious of the group....but no one hospitalized at this time. [Gary McDaniel]

Patricia Lange. Brothers and sisters, my mom, Patricia Lange, did well last week, gaining strength following her second round of chemo on Monday, August 24. After staying with her for about a week and a half, I am now back in Montgomery. I plan to travel to Texas late this week for her third round of chemo on September 14th. In other good news, testing indicated that she is negative for BRCA1 and BRCA2 genetic mutations. So thankful to the Lord for her overall progress and her "negative" genetic tests! Thanks so much for any and all prayers offered on her behalf!

Cooper Terry 09/12/20 Reached a milestone on September 08th finishing his last Chemotherapy treatment of the three cycles. He had more tests and a scan done on Friday. The family is waiting to hear results. Praying to hear "Cancer Free" Please continue to lift him up in your prayers.

As far as Jesus is concerned, we can't draw the line anywhere. Even when it comes to our very enemies, the appropriate response is love (Matt. 5:44). He goes on to explain that there's nothing necessarily admirable about loving the loveable (Matt. 5:46). There's nothing unusual about loving the loveable. Loving the unlovable, that's where you'll find a Christian
