II. Introduction to the Gospels
   A. Three great divisions of mankind in the New Testament World:
      1. Jewish - Familiar with lengthy discourses, the Old Testament, figurative language, expecting the Messiah (the Anointed One).
      2. Roman - Admired action, swift decisive displays of power. Unconcerned with lengthy sermons, figurative language, etc.

   B. Three different writers wrote accounts of life of Jesus emphasizing facets of it that would appeal to these three groups. It seems likely that:
      1. Matthew wrote for Jews. His book contains sermons, parables, many Old Testament references and presents Jesus as the son of David, the Messiah.
      3. Luke wrote for Greeks. He was a Greek, a physician. His is the most literate account. Contains beautiful human interest stories. Stresses the humanity of Jesus, tracing lineage to Adam making Him brother of all.

   C. John stands alone in contrast with the “synoptics” (those who see together).

   A.
   B.
   C.
Introduction.

1. “Matthew is formal and stately. Mark is bustling with life; Matthew collects Jesus’ sayings. Mark concentrates on the marvelous things Jesus did and the places He went.”

2. J. B. Tidwell suggests the following characteristics of Mark:
   a. It is a gospel of vividness and detail.
   b. It is a gospel of Activity and Energy.
   c. It is a gospel of power over devils.
   d. It is a gospel of wonders.
   e. It is a gospel for the Romans.

3. In addition it may be said that Mark is the most nearly chronological of the gospel stories. Using this fact, we shall try to fill in the outline of the life of Jesus as we study Mark. What we do not find in Mark we will fill in from the other books.

I. Birth - Mark does not mention this period of Jesus’ life.

II. Infancy - Mark does not tell anything of the infancy of Jesus.

III. Preparation
   A. Mark begins his account of Jesus’ life when Jesus is thirty years old.

   B. “Baptism of Jesus” - Mark 1:1-11 (Place this on outline as 3-C)
      1. Who went out to be baptized by John?
      2. How was John clothed?
      3. From what place did Jesus come to be baptized?
      4. How were three divine persons manifested at Jesus’ baptism?

   C. “Temptation of Jesus” - Mark 1:12-13 (Place this on outline as 3-D)
      1. Who drove Jesus into the wilderness to be tempted?
      2. Who ministered to Him?

IV. First Year (Obscurity) - Omitted by Mark
   John alone describes this ministry, telling of His first cleansing of the temple, the interview with Nicodemus, His baptizing in Judea and ministry in Samaria.
V. Second Year (Popularity) - A period of unimpeded teaching and healing in Galilee. Mark gives special attention to these periods of Galilean Ministry. Be sure you can locate Galilee on a map.

A. “Calling Fishermen” - Mark 1:16-20 (Place this in outline as 5-A)
   1. What were Peter and Andrew doing when Jesus called them?
   2. What were James and John doing?

B. “A Day of Miracles in Capernaum” - Mark 1:21-34 (Place on outline as 5-B)

John’s gospel is even less a biography than the synoptics. Though he follows chronological order in his presentation (John holds the key to the length of Christ’s ministry), yet he carefully selects his material. As the last gospel written, the material seems selected to supplement rather than parallel the synoptics. But even more, the selection is made to aid in reaching the stated goal: “that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you might have life through His name” (John 20:31). Attacks being made on the divinity of Jesus must have prompted the writing of the book.

The above material is taken from Life And Epistles of St. Paul by Conybeare & Howson, slightly amended in spots from J.W. McGarvey’s commentary on Acts of Apostles.
1. Who preached first in Thessalonica?

8. Where did Paul go from Athens (18:1)?

9. Who joined him there from Macedonia (Province where Thessalonica is located.)

   Evidently Timothy’s report prompted Paul to write I Thessalonians.

17. What warning did he give?

18. Did Thessalonica have elders at this time (5:12-13)?

II. Second Thessalonians (A.D. 53)
This book was apparently written very shortly after the first epistle and two things apparently prompted it:

a. A misunderstanding of Paul’s warning to be ready for Christ’s return.

b. The idleness which may have been the result of this misunderstanding.

Chapter 1
1. Who were with Paul when he wrote this letter?

2. What was the condition of their faith by this time?

3. Has they gained any relief from their persecutions?

4. What comfort did Paul give them in 1:6-10?

Chapter 2
5. What things could have caused them to expect an immediate coming of Jesus?

6. What things did Paul say would come first?

7. What did he urge them to hold (2:15)?
Chapter 3

8. For what did he wish them to pray (3:1,2)?

10. What report from Thessalonica greatly concerned Paul (3:6-11)?

11. What steps did Paul say should be taken to correct this condition?

Introduction.
1. Where was Paul when he wrote I Corinthians?
2. How did Paul deal with the Corinthian church in that letter?
3. What purpose did he state in I Corinthians 16:5-6?

3. What was this adversary concerned about?
4. Where did the mob assemble?
5. Why did Paul not address them?
6. Who finally quieted them?
7. What did Paul then do (20:1)?

NOTE: Paul was very concerned about the reception his letter to Corinth would receive. He hoped to hear before leaving Ephesus, but the violence forced a premature departure for Macedonia. Travel to Macedonia would take him through Troas.

II. Second Corinthians
1. What opportunity did he have in Troas (2:12)?

2. How did he feel when he got there (7:5)?
3. By what was he comforted (7:6)?
4. What had Paul’s letter brought about in the Corinthians (7:8-13)?

Titus apparently reported, however, that while most of the Corinthians had repented and felt kindly toward Paul, some were questioning his apostleship and even his integrity. They said he was afraid to come to Corinth to face them. This accounts for the large amount of personal defense offered by Paul in this letter.

6. Why did Paul write a letter instead of coming (23)?

Chapter 2
7. With what emotions did Paul write the first letter?

23. What fellowship was to be avoided?

24. What must be done by those already involved in such fellowship?

25. What does God promise those who will do this?

   Is the name of Titus mentioned anywhere in Acts?

28. Was Paul positive or negative in his dealings with the Corinthians?

2. Now what does he report to them concerning the Macedonians among whom he is staying as he writes II Corinthians?

3. Who had begun the project among the Corinthians?

4. What lessons concerning giving are taught in vs. 7?

5. What two benefits could Paul foresee as result of this collection?

II. Paul’s Defense of His Apostleship

In this section Paul often quotes his enemies and uses irony in dealing with their criticisms. Recognizing this will help to understand some difficulties.

Chapter 10
A. Introduction.
1. Three charges evidently made against Paul by his enemies:
   a. Vs. 1

   b. Vs. 10

   c. Vs. 14

1. Describe his experience 14 years prior.

2. Why was Paul given a thorn in the flesh?

3. When was he truly strong (10)?

4. What were the signs of an apostle worked among the Corinthians?

6. What charge is Paul obviously answering in 14-18?

7. What apprehension did he feel as he planned his visit to Corinth?
Chapter 13
C. Conclusion
   1. What warning did Paul give sinners in Corinth?
   2. Whom were they to examine?
   3. Was Paul envious of them? What did he desire?
Introduction.
1. Paul established the churches of Galatia.
2. Some believe that Galatia was large enough to include cities visited on first tour and that these were “churches of Galatia.” More likely, they were established on the second (Acts 16:6) and confirmed on the 3rd (18:23).
3. Paul’s three years in Ephesus allowed time for false teachers to do mischief.
4. Paul left Ephesus for Macedonia where he wrote II Corinthians. Then he went to Corinth for the winter (Acts 20:3) where he wrote Romans. Either from Macedonia or Corinth he probably wrote Galatians in A.D. 57. Strongest evidence of time and place is similarity to II Corinthians and to Romans.
5. The Galatians were Gauls of whom Julius Caesar wrote: “The infirmity of the Gauls is that they are fickle in their resolves and fond of change, not to be trusted.” This quality is evidently reflected in this book.
6. False teachers came close behind Paul, teaching the same error as those who had come to Antioch (Acts 15:1). What was the error?
7. Paul’s teaching was the most formidable obstacle these teachers faced, so they denied Paul’s apostleship and insisted that since he was not with Jesus, he had to learn all he knew from other Apostles or other teachers.

I. Paul Defends His Apostleship  (Chapters 1 - 2)

Chapter 1
1. By whom was Paul an apostle?

2. What change caused Paul to marvel?

Beginning in verse 11, Paul shows that he had no opportunity to learn the gospel from other apostles. This meant it had to be “by revelation” as he claimed.

3. What was his original position in regard to Christ?

4. Where did he spend his first three years after conversion?

5. When he went to Jerusalem, how long did he stay and whom did he see?

This visit is described in Acts 9:26-30. He apparently omits the visit of Acts 11 and next describes the visit of Acts 15. Read again Acts 15:1-32.
Chapter 2
6. Who is mentioned as going to Jerusalem who was not mentioned in Acts?

7. Which verse is Acts 15 tells of the private meeting of Galatians 2:2-10?

8. According to 2:6, did prominent brethren teach him anything?

9. What is proved by the fact that Paul withstood Peter in Antioch?

10. By what is a man not justified (16)?

11. What was Paul’s relation to the law?

12. What motivated Paul, now that he was dead to the law?

II. Justification by Faith Rather than by Law (Chapters 3 - 4)

1. How did Abraham obtain righteousness (6)?

2. How can we be blessed as children of Abraham (7-9)?

3. Even under the law, by what did the just live?

4. How have we obtained freedom from the law?

5. Purpose of the law? (19) (24)

6. How and where are we children of God?

Chapter 4
7. Do we serve God now as servants or as sons?

8. Why did Paul preach to the Galatians originally?

9. How had they receive him?

10. Ishmael was a physical child of Abraham; why did he not receive the promise?

Whom did Ishmael represent? Isaac?

III. Exhortations to Godliness (Chapters 5 - 6)

Chapter 5
1. What would Galatians lose if circumcised to keep the law?
2. What avails in Christ?

3. How do we avoid the works of the flesh?
   Why must we avoid them?

4. What is the fruit of the Spirit?

5. What is our duty toward: (a) One overtaken in fault?
   (b) One who teaches us? (c) All men?

6. How did Paul write with his own hand?

7. In what must we not glory? In what must we glory?

8. What did Paul bear in his body?
Introduction.
1. Similarities between Galatians and Romans indicate that they were written about the same time. Match the following:

   ____ Romans 8:14-17 A. Galatians 3:12
   ____ Romans 10:5    B. Galatians 3:22
   ____ Romans 4:13,14,16 C. Galatians 4:6,7
   ____ Romans 11:31  D. Galatians 3:14,16,29

2. Both books were written to counteract influence of Judaizers (Acts 15:1). These were already come to Galatia and could be expected in Rome.

Chapter 1
3. Questions from Romans 1:1-15:
   a. What does the gospel of God concern (3-4)?
   b. From whom and for what purpose had Paul received apostleship?
   c. Why did Paul wish to see the Romans?
   d. Why was he ready to preach in Rome?

4. Some definitions are needed for an understanding of Romans:
   Righteousness: The character or quality of being absolutely right - guiltless.
   Justification: The act of pronouncing righteous, a sentence of acquittal.
   Faith: Belief leading to (and often including) obedience. (See 1:5; 16:26)

5. Note the following contrast:
   Law can only justify (pronounce righteous) the man who has kept the law (Galatians 3:2; Romans 10:5). Acquittal is owed such a man - he is innocent.
   In the gospel is revealed a justification of the man who believes in Jesus (Romans 1:16-17). He is pronounced righteous, not on the ground that he is innocent, but on the ground that he is forgiven. Thus, his acquittal is a gift of God, therefore, a matter of grace and not of debt.

I. Universal Need of Righteousness. Against what is God’s wrath revealed (1:18)?
   A. Among Gentiles
1. What revelation had Gentiles had?

2. Had they obtained righteousness through it? Their condition:

Chapter 2
B. Among Jews
1. What group would join in condemning Gentiles?

2. Were they righteous before God? Why?

3. Is God a respecter of persons (2:6-13)?

Chapter 3
4. How did Jew and Gentile compare in righteousness before God (9)?

C. Among all
1. How did Paul prove that all sin (10-19)

2. If the law condemned all men, could it be the means of justification?

II. The Righteousness Provided by God and Revealed in the Gospel
1. Is the righteousness provided by God based on law (21)?

2. What prior notice was given of it?

3. How is this righteousness obtained?

4. Why is it needed by all?

5. How is it possible for a just God to justify (pronounce guiltless) the guilty (25)?

6. When one is justified in this manner can he boast (27)?

7. How were both Jew and Gentile to be justified (30)?

8. If this were so, was there any reason for Gentiles to be circumcised?

III. Even the Righteousness of Abraham was Obtained on the Basis of Faith.

Chapter 4
1. What do scriptures say was counted to Abraham for righteousness?

2. If faith had to be counted for righteousness, had he obtained it by works?

3. Was the man David described righteous by works or by forgiveness?

4. Was Abraham counted righteous before or after circumcision (Gen 15:6 & 17:24)?
5. If we would be counted righteous as Abraham was, must we obtain it by imitating his circumcision or his faith?

6. Had the law been given when the promise was made to Abraham?
   Was righteousness by the law?

7. For whose sake was it written that his faith was imputed for righteousness?

8. Did the fact that his righteousness was of faith mean he did not have to work?
Having established the principle of justification by faith, Paul moves on to consideration of the practical outgrowth of the doctrine.

I. Freedom in Christ

Chapter 5

A. Freedom from Wrath

1. Name blessing we enjoy, being justified by faith (1-5).

2. Why may we expect all of this (6-10)?

3. Summary of 11-21: There is a sense in which Adam, by one sin, unconditionally involved all of his descendants in sin and brought upon them the consequences of physical death. Christ, by one act of righteousness, canceled unconditionally all the consequences of Adam’s sin. However, his act of righteousness reaches farther, making possible justification of the many offenses committed by the descendants of Adam and providing eternal life for them. But as these offenses involved a choice to follow Adam, their forgiveness demands a choice to follow the new Adam - Christ.

Chapter 6

B. Freedom for Sin

Paul’s insistence that righteousness is apart from law and undeserved led some to charge him with encouraging sin (3:8). This charge he answers in Chapter 6.

1. What keeps the Christian from voluntarily living in sin?

2. How is our resurrection from baptism like that of Christ’s (9)?

3. What do we change when we obey the gospel (16-19)?

4. Do servants of sin serve righteousness? Should we serve sin?

5. What are the wages of sin? Is eternal life the wages of righteousness?

Chapter 7

C. Freedom from the Law

1. What is our relation to the law?

2. What purpose did it serve (7)?

3. When obeyed, the law was unto life, but what was it when disobeyed (10)?
4. What was there within Paul that proved the law was good (14-16)?

3. How many visits did Paul make to Philippi (Macedonia)?

4. What commendation did Paul make of them (II Corinthians 8:1-5)?

5. Philippians was not written to deal with any special issue or problem. There is no rebuke in it, and it is the most personal of all the letters to the churches. Suggest a probable reason for writing (4:10,18).

2. Who carried the letter to the Ephesians (6:21)?

3. How does this compare with Colossians (Col. 4:3,7,18)?

4. Many believe that Ephesians was written as an open letter to be carried to many churches by Tychicus, Paul’s representative. This would explain:
   a. The absence of personal greetings from a letter to a familiar church.
   b. Some peculiar statements if intended only for Ephesus (1:15; 3:2).
   c. Absence of the word EPHESUS from many of the older manuscripts in 1:1.

      EPHESIANS: Theme: Fulness of Christ in Church (1:22-23)  Subject: The Bride
   d. There is also evidence of error in Colossae which needed attention. There are traces of the Greek philosophy of Gnosticism apparently alluded to. Among other tenets, it maintained that all material was inherently evil. This meant that Jesus was either evil (and not God) or He was not actually in the flesh. The philosophy encouraged severity to the body and worship of angels because they were not in fleshly bodies.

3. Paul had apparently never been to Colossae (2:1). The church was probably established while he was in Ephesus (See also Acts 19:10).

5. What other letter did Paul want them to read?

6. Who was to take heed to his ministry in Colossae? Remember this man.
I. Philemon

1. What was Paul’s situation as he wrote (See also verse 9)?

2. To whom is the letter written?

   It is generally thought that Apphia was Philemon’s wife and Archippus his son.

3. Where did Archippus live (Colossians 4:17)?

4. What kind of man was Philemon (4-7)?

   Philemon was also a slave owner. This letter involves his slave, Onesimus, who had apparently stolen money from him and ran away to Rome. There he met Paul, was converted and shown that as a Christian he must return to his master. This letter Paul sent by him to Philemon. What other letter accompanied it (Col. 4:7-9)?

5. Why did Paul beseech rather than command Philemon?

6. What kind of servant was Onesimus before his conversion?

   Afterward? The name ONESIMUS means “useful.”

10. What arrangement did Paul offer for repaying Onesimus’ debt?

11. What more do you suppose Paul expected of Philemon (21)?

12. What did Paul obviously expect regarding his imprisonment and trial (22)?

II. Reasons for Believing Paul was Released from the Imprisonment of Acts 28

   A. His plans to go to Spain after seeing Rome (Acts 19:21; Romans 15:24, 28). The plans were fulfilled up to the point of going to Spain. Was this part not?

   B. He apparently expected to be released (Phil. 1:25-26; 2:24; Philemon 22).
C. Charges against him were mild, his treatment lenient both on the journey and in his imprisonment. Nero at this time was under moderating influences.

D. Testimony of the early “Fathers”.
   1. Clement (Phil. 4:3?) stated that Paul “had gone to the extremity of the West”, the Roman way of designating Spain. He wrote in the first century.
   2. Muratori’s Canon (170 AD) speaks of Paul’s journey to Spain.
   3. Eusebius, Chrysostom, Jerome and other very early writers speak of Paul’s release and later labors and there is no dissenting voice.

E. Many references to events in the letters to Timothy and Titus do not fit into the history related up until this point.

III. Later Journeys
   Worked out from references in Titus and Timothy as well as from those written during his imprisonment stating his purposes. This the work of Coneybeare & Howson (Life & Epistles of Paul).
   A. Rome
   B. Macedonia (Philippi) (See Philippians 1:26; 2:23-24)
   C. Ephesus (Side visits to Colossae, especially to Philemon - Philemon 22).
   D. Spain (2 years probably spent here - AD 64-66)
   E. Ephesus - Left Timothy to correct error (I Timothy 1:3)
   F. Macedonia - Apparently writes I Timothy, hoping to return to him (3:15).
   G. Ephesus
   H. Crete - Here he leaves Titus (Titus 1:5).
   I. Ephesus - Writes Titus just before departing for Nicopolis (Titus 3:12).
   J. Travels by way of: Miletus (Leaves Trophimus there sick - II Timothy 4:20).
      Troas (Leaves cloak and books with Carpus - II Tim 4:13).
      Corinth (Leaves Eratus - II Timothy 4:20).
   K. Nicopolis - Probably arrested here and taken to Rome for second trial.
   L. Rome - During imprisonment here he wrote II Timothy. In II Timothy, the optimism found in Philippians, Colossians and Philemon is missing. In this book he obviously expects to die. History is almost unanimous in saying he was beheaded in that city. By this time Nero was engaged in wholesale persecution of Christians, blaming them with the burning of Rome.

3. What further work did he do in Corinth (II Cor. 8:6,16-17,23)?

Occasion of the Epistle
From Lesson 39, we note that upon Paul’s release from prison in Rome, he probably travelled through Macedonia to Ephesus which became the base of his work. After two years in Spain he apparently returned to Ephesus, made a round trip to Macedonia, then one to Crete. He left Titus in Crete and returned to Ephesus where he wrote the epistle to Titus just before departing for Nicopolis.

Lesson 42

I. Last Days of the Apostle Paul as Reflected in II Timothy

1. For what place was Paul departing when he wrote Titus 3:12?

2. A likely route would take him through the following cities. What happened in each?

   Miletus (II Timothy 4:20)

   Troas (4:13)

   Corinth (4:20)

   If Timothy were still in Ephesus, sending this brother would relieve him to come to Paul (4:9).

4. When Titus did join Paul, where was he sent (4:10)?

   Evidently, Paul was arrested in Nicoplis and taken to Rome for trial. After his earlier release in 63, Rome burned in the summer of 64. “When the alarm and indignation of the people were excited by the tremendous ruin of a conflagration which burned down half the city, it answered the purpose of Nero (who was accused of causing the fire) to avert the rage of the populace from himself to the already hated votaries of a new religion. Tacitus describes the success of this expedient, and relates the sufferings of the Christian martyrs, who were put to death with circumstances of the most aggravated cruelty. Some were crucified; some disguised in the skins of beasts and hunted to death with dogs; some were wrapped in robes impregnated with inflammable materials and set on fire at night that they might serve to illuminate the circus of the Vatican and the gardens of Nero. …We can quite understand that a leader of so abhorred a sect would be subjected to a severe imprisonment.” - Coneybeare & Howson

5. How did Paul suffer during this imprisonment (2:9)?

6. Who was apparently Paul’s accuser (4:14)?

What is the message for our times?

Is it not impressive that the man who gave this charge sealed it with his blood?

Shall we cease from preaching short of such a sacrifice? If so, can we expect reward?
Introduction.
1. The author of Hebrews is unknown. It has been ascribed to Clement of Rome, Barnabas, Silas, Acquila, Mark, Luke, Apollos and to Paul. Paul has been the choice of a majority of scholars since the second century. If Paul did write it, he may have omitted his name because it had become so odious to a majority of the Hebrews. But “if the authorship of this epistle is uncertain, its inspiration is indisputable.”
2. The book is written to discourage apostasy among Hebrew Christians. Many had accepted Christ, perhaps in expectation of His early return, but He had delayed. While their Jewish brethren gloried in the temple, in the priesthood, the sacrifices, the ceremonies and the law handed down by God to Moses on smoking, quaking Sinai, these Christians were without such tangible symbols. Apparently they were discouraged and tempted to return to Judaism. The purpose of Hebrews is to show that in Christ we have all that the old system had in better form.

Introduction.
1. There are at least three prominent men by the name of James in the New Testament. Identify them:

2. The James mentioned in Galatians 1:19; Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18; I Corinthians 15:7 is the one supposed to have authored the book. Which is he?

3. To whom is the book addressed?

Some have maintained that there is a conflict between James and Paul concerning the law and salvation by grace through faith apart from works. Luther called this “an epistle of straw.” There is no such conflict. James may, however, have been concerned about possible abuses of Paul’s teaching. He may have anticipated or even observed the casting off of all restraint among those who learned that they were free from the law, and the foolish conclusion by some that salvation by grace through faith eliminates the necessity of obedience. These reactions (not intended by Paul) are common now if not then. The writing of James beautifully counteracts such error and lays down a practical pattern of life for the Christian. Is it irreverent to suggest that as we read the book we note the similarity of style to the preaching of his most reverent half-brother in the flesh? (Major headings in the following are by Merrill Tenney.)

1. Occasion: Contents of the book indicate the approach of major persecution. Peter’s purpose: to encourage patience and hope in the face of it.
2. Date: Mark was with Peter in Babylon as he wrote. Since he was with Paul in his first (Colossians 4:10) and last (II Timothy 4:11) imprisonments, it must have been between these times, likely just before the burning of Rome (AD 64) and the persecutions resulting form that and from the Jewish war which culminated in the destruction of Jerusalem (AD 70).

II Peter & Jude

Introduction.
If Hebrews dealt with apostasy and I Peter with suffering, II Peter through Jude deal with problem of false teachers in the last half of the 1st century.

II Peter - The key word in II Peter is KNOWLEDGE, some form of the verb to know being used in the book sixteen times. Knowledge of the Truth is thus offered as the antidote to error. How desperately this needs to be understood today!

20. If we believe in the eventual destruction of all material things, what effect should it have on our lives?

21. Did Peter find Paul’s writings easy to understand?

   Did he call it scripture by implication?

3. Why did he change?

4. Which chapter of II Peter is most like the book of Jude?

   What other explanation is possible?

6. Who is the archangel? How is he an example for us?

7. Were false teachers inside or outside the church?

8. Who is the first reported prophet of Jesus?
II Peter & Jude

9. What in II Peter compares to Jude 20?

10. What distinction must be made in dealing with different kinds of sinners?
Author:
The Apostle John
Apostle of Love - Word or derivatives found 51 times in the book.
Apostle of Truth - Word found nine times; several others referring to same.
John’s love for God caused him to hate false ways (Psalm 97:10).
John’s love for God’s people caused him to hate anything that might destroy their spiritual soundness.

Purpose:
I John 5:13 - “That you may know that you have eternal life.” Word KNOW is a very significant word in the epistle.
Epistle written to combat errors of the “Knowing Ones” - the Gnostics.
John contrasts the things the Christian truly knows with what the false teachers only thought they knew.

Gnostic’s Basic Error:
All things material are essentially evil.” Three consequences:

A “Christ could not have come in the flesh.” Two different schools:
1. Docetism: Maintained that the story of the virgin birth, etc. was fiction - that Jesus only appeared at John’s baptism and was never real. He was only an illusion created by God for the benefit of man. Did not actually die on the cross.
2. Cerinthus: Maintained that Jesus was born an ordinary man to Mary and Joseph. Simply an outstanding man until His baptism, at which time Christ came down and made union with him until the eve of His passion, at which time Christ left him so that Christ did not actually die - only Jesus.

B “The body cannot be pure.”
Man is not accountable for or responsible for the sins of his body. If he has knowledge he is sinless regardless of what his body may do.

C. Knowledge is the one true essential.”
Knowledge brings one into union with God and lifts him above any responsibility to love or serve uninitiated humanity.
Read 1 John by paragraphs as suggested below and indicate which of the above errors is dealt with. The first one is done for you as an example.

___ 1:5 - 2:6 ___ 3:10b-20 ___ 4:16 - 5:3
___ 2:7-11 ___ 3:21-24 ___ 5:4-12
___ 2:12-17 ___ 4:1-6 ___ 5:13-19
___ 2:18-28 ___ 4:7-12 ___ 5:20-21

The preceding divisions of the book were suggested in International Standard Bible Encyclopedia.

Another interesting outline is suggested in The Bible Book By Book, by J. B. Tidwell.

Revelation (Supplement) Lesson 50-A

Introduction.
Revelation is different from any other New Testament book and needs special study.

I. Apocalyptic Literature
   A. Meaning of word - “an unveiling, uncovering.” Revelation is but one of many apocalyptic books in Jewish literature. Only Revelation and Daniel are inspired.

   B. Characteristics:
      1. Always possessed historical significance. Always rooted in some critical historical situation involving oppression, persecution, etc. Daniel during Babylonian captivity, Revelation during Roman persecution. Most other such book were produced under Greek oppression between the Testaments.

      2. Most were pseudonymous, claiming to be the work of a great personality.

      3. The message in Apocalyptic books is always in visions.

      4. Predictive element present. The present was always a time of evil, turmoil, persecution, etc. while the future was glorious, triumphant, free, etc.

      5. Use of symbols. Symbols enabled oppressed peoples to speak of their oppressors without danger of incrimination. They became a code, a “lingo” for those “in the know”. Numbers were a part of this symbolism.

      6. The dramatic element was always prominent.

   C. Reasons for Apocalyptic writing.
      1. Personal safety of both writer and reader.

      2. Impressiveness of the form.

II. Different Schools of Interpretation of Revelation
   A. Preterist - Claim all has been fulfilled, accomplished soon after written.

   B. Futurist - Relate nearly all the book to the “end times”. - Millennialists.

   C. Continuous Historical - See Revelation as being history written in advance and stretching all the way from John to final judgement.
D. Philosophy of History - Believe that Revelation simply sets forth principles of God’s dealings with man in all generations.

E. Historical-Background - Acknowledge the historical setting of the book, make major portion apply directly to the people to whom written, yet allow for revelation of final judgement, and a picture of the saints at home with God.

III. Significance of Numbers in Revelation
The following significance has generally been seen by scholars in the numbers indicated. Some are more certain than others. We cannot be too dogmatic.

One = Unity
Six = Incomplete - seems to have a sinister meaning, e.g. 666
Two = Strength
Seven = Perfection (3 + 4, Number of heaven + earth)
Three = Divinity
Ten = Power (Human completeness, as 10 fingers, toes, etc.)
Four = World
Twelve = Religion
3½ = only partially complete
1,000 = 10 x 10, completeness to the ultimate

IV. Date of Revelation
A. Various ideas
   1. Days of Nero

   2. Days of Vespasian (69-79)

   3. Days of Domitian (81-96)

B. Latter probably correct.

Much of the material here is from WORTHY IS THE LAMB, a book by Ray Summers.
