Some Facts To Consider
Their preaching was in vain.

The Apostles were false witnesses of God.

The Christian faith is worthless.

Everyone is still in sin.

All that have died are perished and are gone forever.

Christians should be critical

The Facts of History

Philo, a Jewish philosopher of the first century, wrote that Pontius Pilate was responsible for countless atrocities and numerous executions without mercy. In 1961, an inscription was found in Caesarea, the Roman capital of Palestine during the days of Jesus. It read: Pontius Pilate, Prefect of Judea, sent Titus Flavius Tiberius to the Caesareans. This discovery removed a doubt that had existed for
