God's Will

God's will is not established or demonstrated by complaining about what we don't like or what we think has been misapplied. There is a place for proper critique, but a critique is not a positive proof of what God's will actually is. To do that, we must know what God's mind is on a matter, and this is the purpose of revelation. We cannot know what God thinks unless He indicates that to us, and one of Paul's points in 1 Corinthians 2 is that the Spirit reveals God's mind. Without that, we are not at liberty to say what God's will is. That would be like me telling others what is on your mind without you telling me — and chances are I'd be wrong.

Remember that God doesn't think like us (Isa 55:8-9). Our wisdom is not His wisdom. The way that seems right to us may well lead to death (Prov 14:12). Caution is always in order, then, in approaching God's will and what He has revealed. This is, at least, part of the point being made in Isaiah 66:1-2. We may think we can devise and design great things for God, but this will not impress Him or cause Him to think we are something great. Here is what will, if you will, impress God:

*Thus says the LORD,
"Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool.
Where then is a house you could build for Me?
And where is a place that I may rest?
"For My hand made all these things,
Thus all these things came into being," declares the LORD.*

SUFFERING

C.S. Lewis was once asked "Why do the righteous suffer?"

"Why not?" he replied, "They're the only ones who can take it."

"For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us."

-- Romans 8:18

The false "Jesus" the world loves!

Here are some of his attributes:

- He will allow everyone into heaven
- He came to bring peace, not division
- He doesn't require Obedience
- He doesn't require Holiness
- He doesn't require Repentance
- He only preaches on Love
- He never says anything Offensive
- He never tells anyone they're wicked
- He calls everyone His children
- He will not send anyone to Hell
- He wants you to do your own will
- His commandments are suggestions

If you are following this false Jesus,
Thought I'd let you know ...
his real name is ... satan!

August 4-5 – Ladies Bible Study – Hwy. 5 – Mountain Home AR

Life seems awfully complicated these days. Remember when every question had only two side?

A pessimist is a person who complains when opportunity knocks.

Making a sin legal does not make it harmless.
