

THE WAY

ACTS 24:14

The Way

The Way

Hodos, means “road, highway, journey, or implies a way of life”

The Way

Derived from Jesus' teaching.

| Mat 7:13-14; Jhn 14:6 |

The Way

Common description for the faith throughout Acts:

| 9:2; 16:17; 18:25-26; 19:9, 23; 24:14, 22 |

The Way

Also mentioned in the epistles.

| 1 Cor 12:31; Heb 10:19-20; 2 Pet 2:2, 21 |

A scenic landscape photograph of a winding asphalt road at sunset. The road curves from the bottom left towards the center. On the right side of the road, a white guardrail follows the curve. Beyond the guardrail, the road appears to continue but then abruptly ends at a cliff edge, with the road surface curving away into the sky. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a golden glow and casting long shadows. Several birds are visible in the sky. The overall mood is one of a path that leads to a dead end, contrasting with the true path of the road.

The Way

Stands in sharp contrast to false teachers.

| 2 Pet 2:15; Jud 11 |

A scenic photograph of a winding asphalt road on a hillside at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright flare and casting a golden glow over the landscape. Several birds are seen flying in the sky. The road curves to the right, bordered by a metal guardrail. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Implications of The Way

Implications of The Way

Highlights the exclusivity of Christ - His sacrifice and His commands.

VERSE

A scenic photograph of a winding asphalt road at sunset. The road curves to the right, bordered by a white metal guardrail. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the landscape. Hills and a town are visible in the distance under a sky with scattered clouds and a few birds in flight.

Implications of The Way

Reminds us that we are sojourners and pilgrims.

VERSE

Implications of The Way

Emphasizes that our faith is a way of life.
