

 What is the Bible?

Google Search

I'm Feeling Lucky

- The word Bible means “book.” It is actually a library of books that claim to come from God.
- Jews and Christians referred to the Bible as Scripture and recognized God as its source and protector – 2 Timothy 3:16–17; 2 Peter 1:20–21.
- Inspired men (and women) first spoke the word of God and then wrote it down – 1 Corinthians 2:10–13; Ephesians 3:3–5; cf. 2 Peter 1:20–21.
- There are several reasons to accept that the Bible is the inspired and inerrant word of God.
  - Jesus accepted the Bible as the word of God – John 10:34–35; cf. 1 Corinthians 14:37–38; Romans 1:1–6.

🔍 What is the Bible?

- The word Bible means “book.” It is actually a library of books that claim to come from God.
- Jews and Christians referred to the Bible as Scripture and recognized God as its source and protector – 2 Timothy 3:16–17; 2 Peter 1:20–21.
- Inspired men (and women) first spoke the word of God and then wrote it down – 1 Corinthians 2:10–13; Ephesians 3:3–5; cf. 2 Peter 1:20–21.
- There are several reasons to accept that the Bible is the inspired and inerrant word of God.
  - The Bible contains predictions prophecies that only God could have revealed – Deuteronomy 18:20–22.

🔍 What is the Bible?

- The word Bible means “book.” It is actually a library of books that claim to come from God.
- Jews and Christians referred to the Bible as Scripture and recognized God as its source and protector – 2 Timothy 3:16–17; 2 Peter 1:20–21.
- Inspired men (and women) first spoke the word of God and then wrote it down – 1 Corinthians 2:10–13; Ephesians 3:3–5; cf. 2 Peter 1:20–21.
- There are several reasons to accept that the Bible is the inspired and inerrant word of God.
  - The Bible displays supernatural accuracy and unity in its narrative and its doctrine – John 10:34–35.

🔍 What is the Bible?

- The word Bible means “book.” It is actually a library of books that claim to come from God.
- Jews and Christians referred to the Bible as Scripture and recognized God as its source and protector – 2 Timothy 3:16–17; 2 Peter 1:20–21.
- Inspired men (and women) first spoke the word of God and then wrote it down – 1 Corinthians 2:10–13; Ephesians 3:3–5; cf. 2 Peter 1:20–21.
- There are several reasons to accept that the Bible is the inspired and inerrant word of God.
- The Bible reveals the divine story of salvation!

 What is the Bible?

Google Search

I'm Feeling Lucky