

ISAJIAH

We must choose whether we will take opportunities.

God's servants replied to God's call:

God's servants replied to God's call:
"Here I am."

“Here I am (הִנֵּנִי - hineni)!”

“Behold (הִנְדָּה - hinnēh)!”

When we look at the situations of God's servants,
we can see applications.

Isaiah was a servant of God with a message.

Servants of God Confronted with their Sin Carry a Message of Salvation.

Isaiah 6

Servants of God Confronted with their Sin Carry a Message of Salvation.

Isaiah 6

When confronted with the Almighty God on his holy throne, our greatest fear is our sin.

Servants of God Confronted with their Sin Carry a Message of Salvation.

Isaiah 6

Those who have been forgiven by God's grace have an opportunity to carry His message.

Servants of God Confronted with their Sin Carry a Message of Salvation.

Luke 5:1-11

Servants of God Confronted with their Sin Carry a Message of Salvation.

Luke 5:1-11

Those who fear the impact of sin the deepest are the ones chosen to free other sinners.

Servants of God Confronted with their Sin Carry a Message of Salvation.

Matthew 13:10-17

Servants of God Confronted with their Sin Carry a Message of Salvation.

Matthew 13:10-17

Jesus used simple pictures to communicate the good news that both invited and hardened.

Servants of God Confronted with their Sin Carry a Message of Salvation.

God's Presence with His People would be Shown a Promise of Salvation.

Isaiah 52:1-12

God's Presence with His People would be Shown a Promise of Salvation.

Isaiah 52:1-12

God's message of good news was a promise of redemption for those who were in captivity.

God's Presence with His People would be Shown a Promise of Salvation.

Isaiah 52:1-12

God promised to lead His people out of captivity as a demonstration to all human beings.

God's Presence with His People would be Shown a Promise of Salvation.

Romans 10:11-17

God's Presence with His People would be Shown a Promise of Salvation.

Romans 10:11-17

The message of salvation has always been carried by a preacher who called for faith.

God's Presence with His People would be Shown a Promise of Salvation.

II Corinthians 6:14-7:1

God's Presence with His People would be Shown a Promise of Salvation.

II Corinthians 6:14-7:1

A faithful response to God's promise and invitation makes us a different people altogether.

God's Presence with His People would be Shown a Promise of Salvation.

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

Isaiah 58:1-12

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

Isaiah 58:1-12

The hard message of the prophet was for those who only pretended to love righteousness.

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

Isaiah 58:1-12

God promised to be present for those believers who truly loved and cultivated His values.

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

James 4:1-10

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

James 4:1-10

God's people can still struggle with settling for the pretense of righteousness in our prayers.

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

Matthew 25:31-46

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

Matthew 25:31-46

Those who are blessed by the Lord in judgment never sought to be noticed for their kindness.

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

Matthew 25:31-46

Those who only pretend that they would honor the Lord cannot see Him in His brethren.

God's Correction of His People was to Cultivate Humility and Compassion.

Will you respond to God's call as a servant?

