UPDATE

June 23rd was a day of mixed emotions for us. Lois fell and broke her arm and pelvic bone and cut her head. As they were loading her in the ambulance, we got word of the birth of a great-grandson. Simon Charles was born to Reid and McKenzie Love. Then July 26th Louisa Elizabeth was born to Bryce and Mallory Love. Both babies were welcomed home by grandparents Kevin and Sharon Love. Lois spent 6 days in the hospital and then 21 days in the care center. She took her first steps August 6th. So many have offered help in so many ways that we can't name them all. We thank you for this and prayers for us. We can't name all the good deeds and the people who prayed for us. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

In Christian Love, Bob & Lois

THANK YOU

Thank you so much for the basket of flowers, the use of the building, and the meal after the services for my brother Robert "Bobby" Davis. I appreciate it so much.

OPEN-AIR DRIVE BY SHOWER

On Sunday evening, September 13th, from 7:00 p.m.- 8:00 p.m. there will be a shower for Dakota Beardmore, son of Jason and Angela Beardmore. Dakota now needs size 4 diapers and size 12 months clothes. The gifts will be welcomed outside the main entrance to the church. If you wish to donate money, see Patti or Merna (Note: some money was already collected. If you are not sure, see Patti or Merna also.) Please pull up, drop off, and congratulate Jason and Angela on their new son!

Time is on My Side?

In 1964, The Rolling Stones covered a song that had been written the previous year for a jazz and orchestra arrangement, "Time is On My Side." They added their signature sound and some additional lyrics, and the song became a hit in the United States as well as their native England. The lyrics of the song follow someone who is waiting for their love interest to come back to them. Throughout the song, the speaker is confident their significant other will come back, because they've loved them with a true love and "time is on my side." But, is it always?

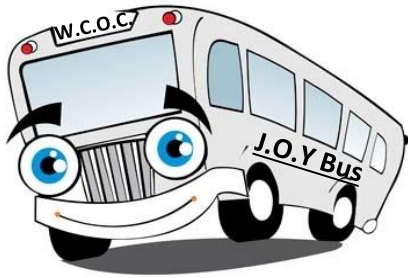

In a Wednesday devotional over a week ago, we discussed the reality that time isn't always on our side. We often think we have more time than we really do, and so we make plans for the future not realizing we may not get to enjoy them. This is the sad reality of our limited existence here. However, if we know our time is limited, what should we do? While we may not know the actual day of our passing, what should we do with what we believe is limited time here on earth?

The letter to the Colossian church is full of some great stuff, but one of my favorite sections is toward the end, as Paul writes his final remarks to the church. Join us this morning as we hear Paul giving us some advice on what he's found to be most important in using the time that he had.
